TORCH

Proudly Presents
Edison Junior-Senior High School

Tulsa Oklahoma

Spring Salad 1958

2 talented play casts (well worked).

1 festive banquet.

75 glamorous bathing beauties (marinated for one year in pool).

2 picnics (thoroughly seasoned with the aroma of charcoal).

2 state honors mixed with the beauty and charm of two formal dances.

Combine these activities gently and add one visit from the businessmen of our city to give flavor.

Top this gourmet's delight with the graduation activities of our first senior class.

Serve in the silver dish of victory with the record of 1958-59 in the hope that it will please.

Sundries

Mr. Bonde is shown receiving the first 1958 "Torch" from Bob Dean at a dinner held in the 1800 Restaurant for the yearbook staff.

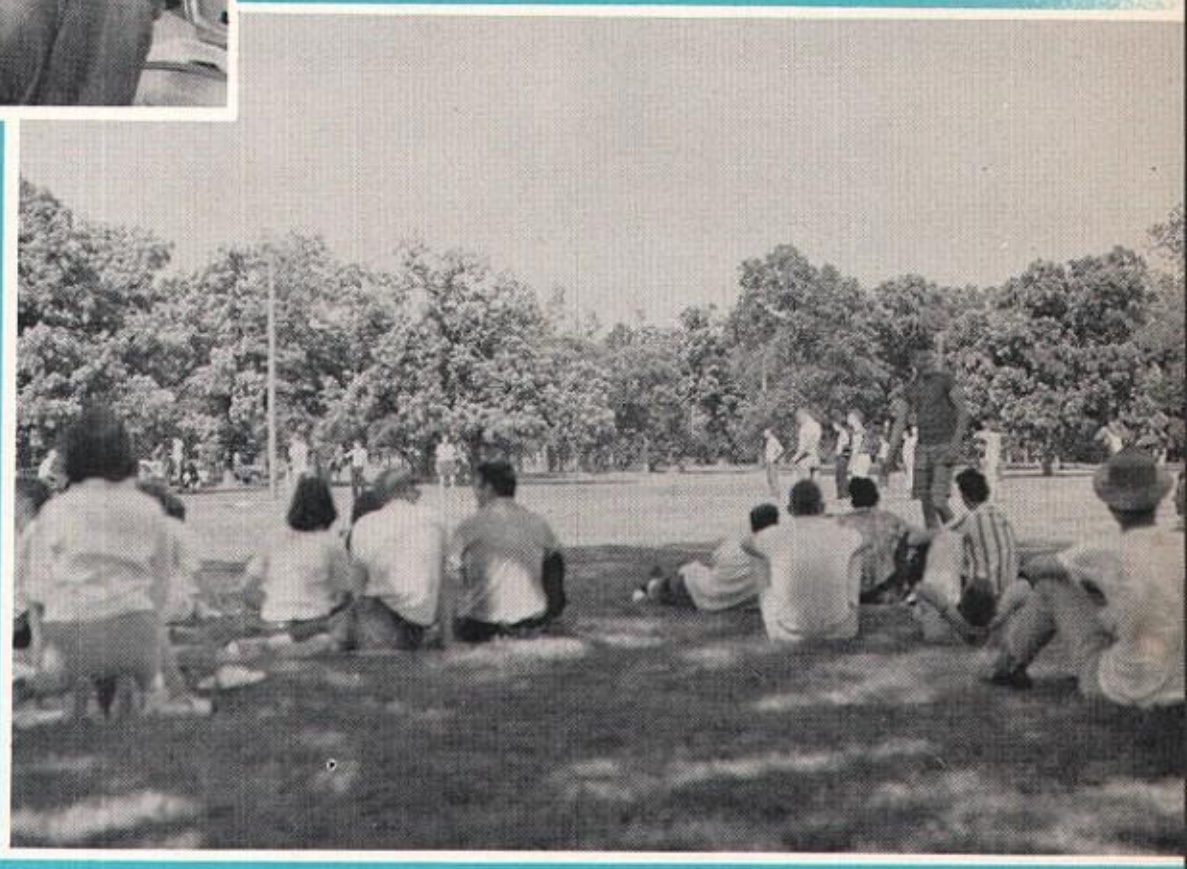
A Pinch of Two Picnics

Surprise! Surprise! A gift well deserved for Miss Morrow, the yearbook sponsor. All staff members look forward to the Annual Steak Fry, where food is plentiful and good times run high.

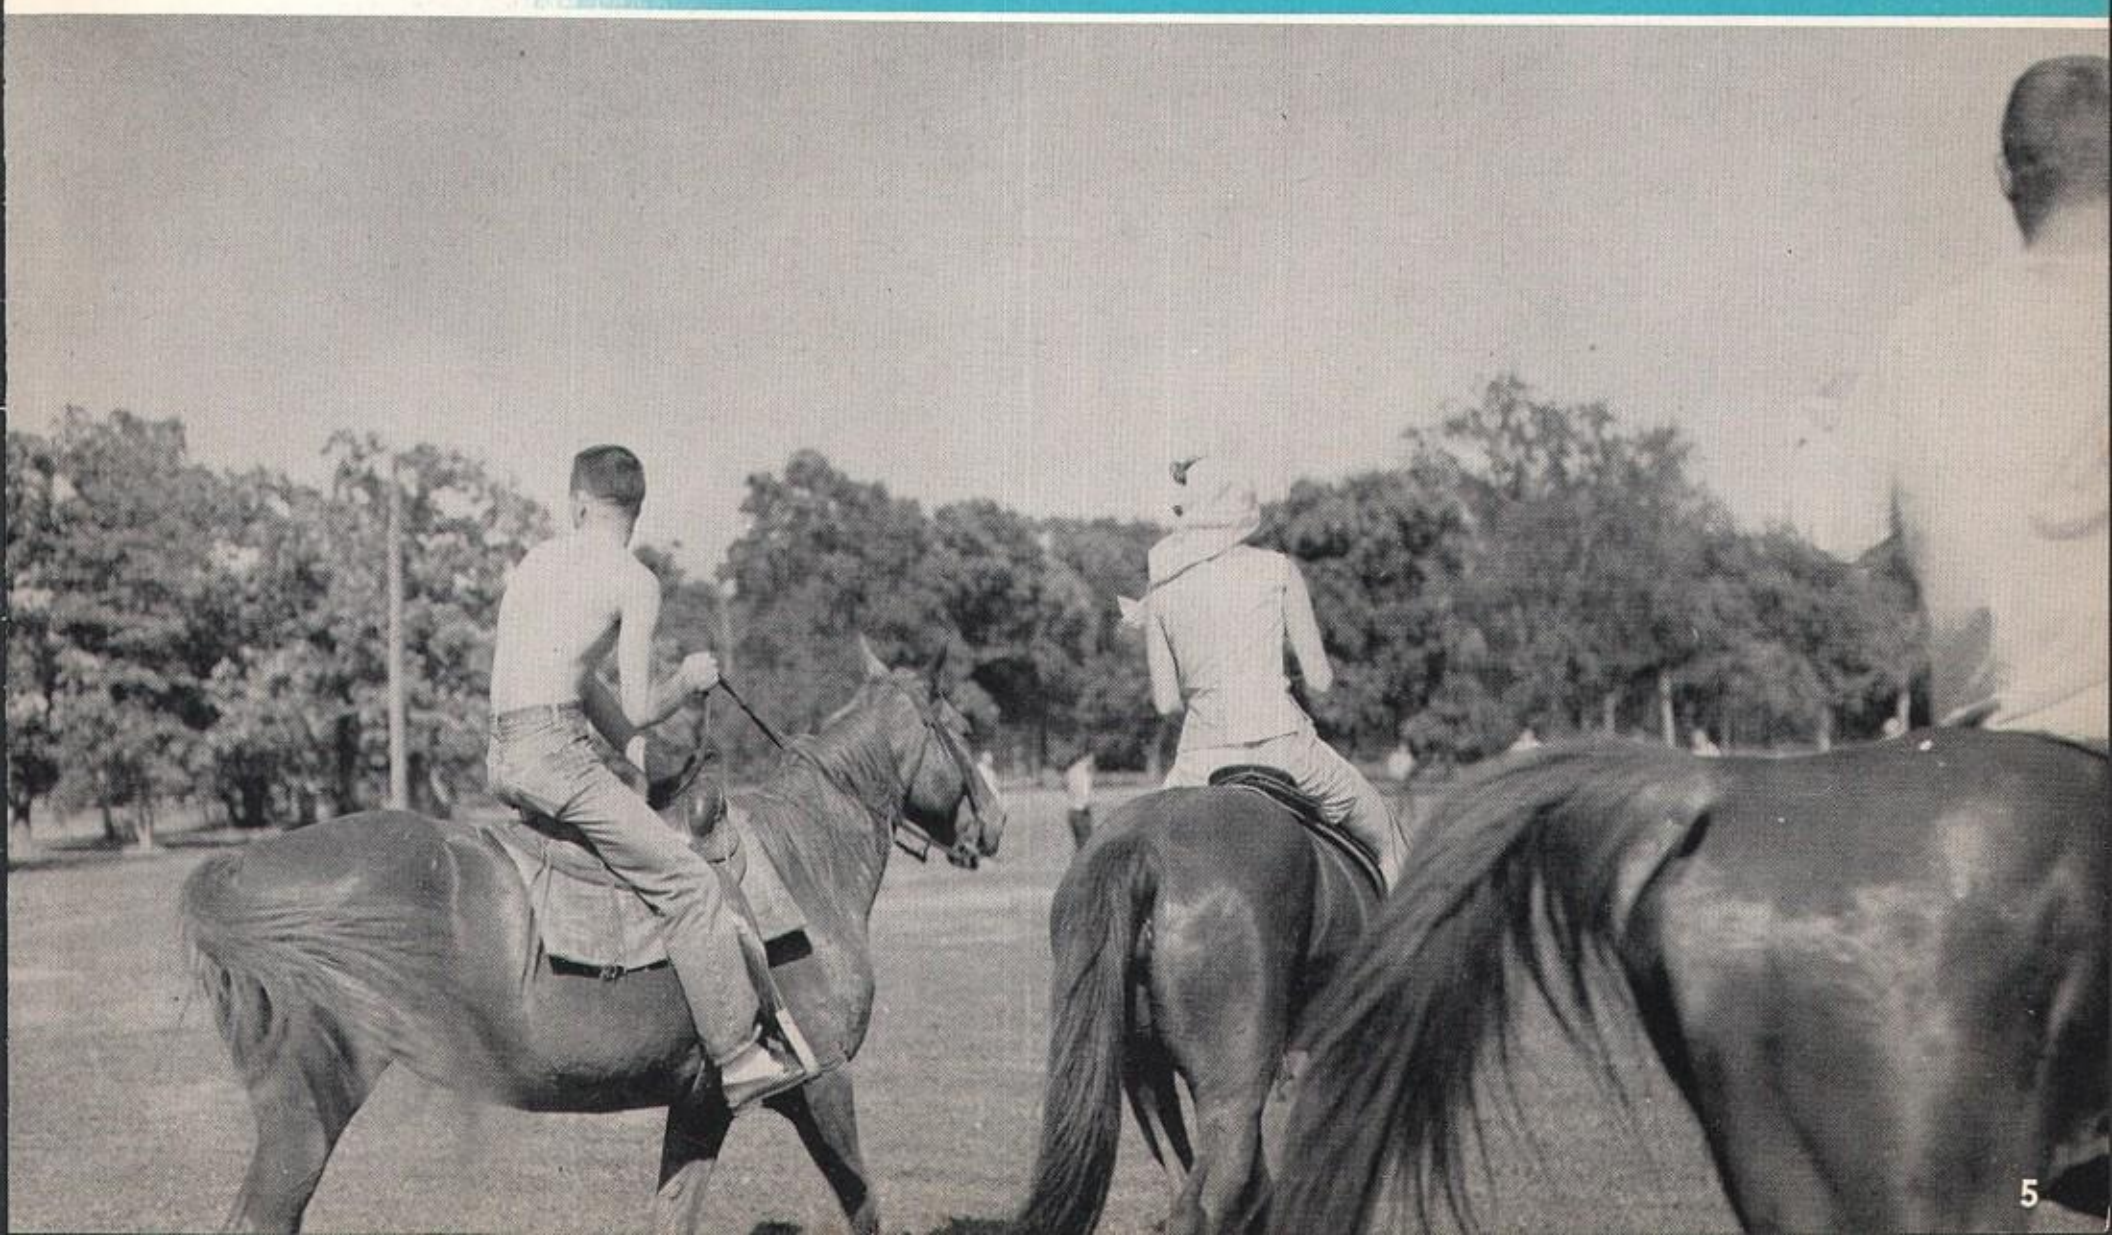
Below: A hearty game of baseball helped Edison Student Council members work up huge appetites. This was satisfied by the Cow-Burgers at the right.

More Picnics

At the Student Council picnic, like any picnic, mustard and coke had a way of getting everywhere but where they were supposed to.

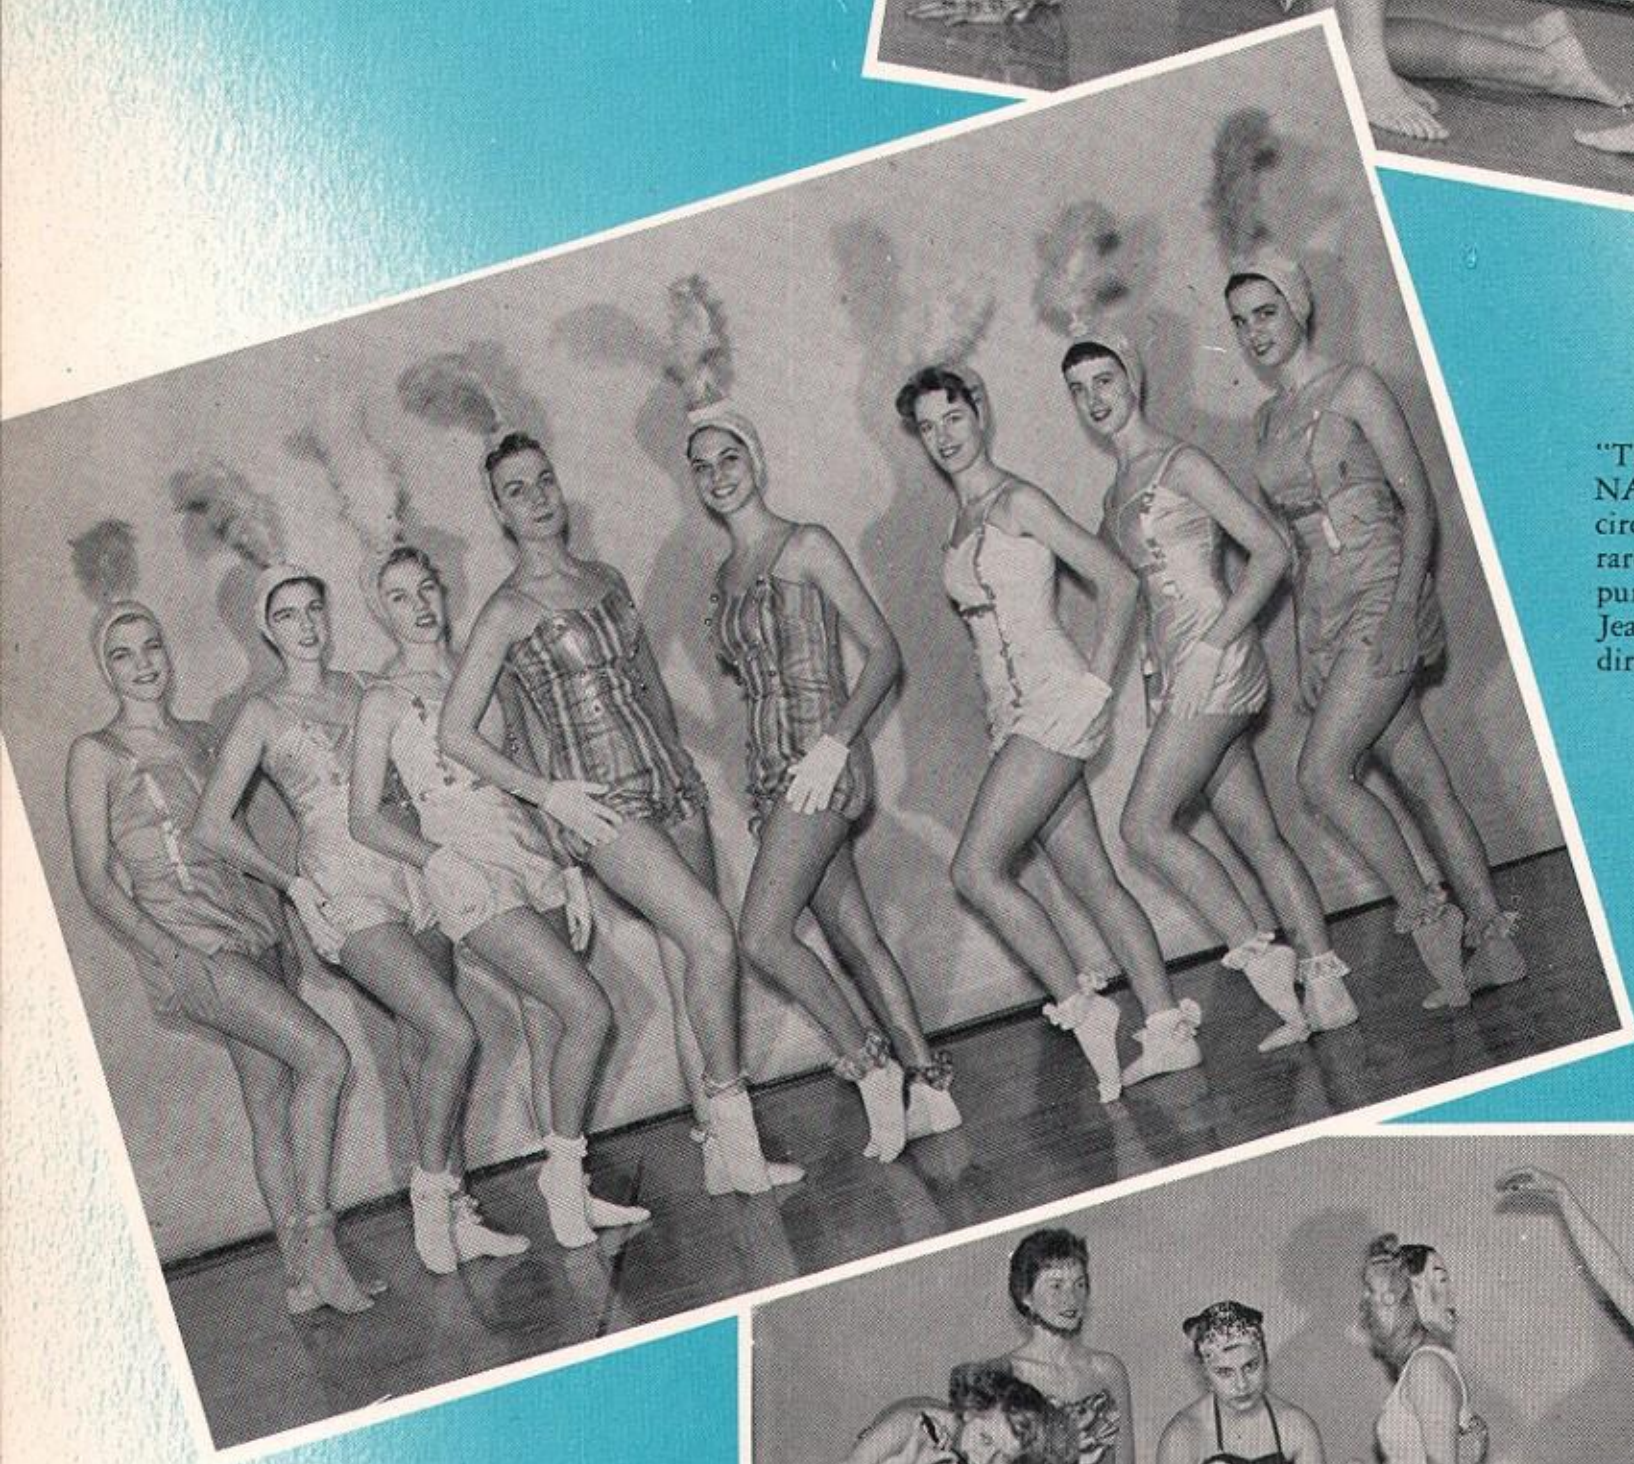


The Senior picnic was held at Mohawk Park and the seniors found many different ways to work up their appetites—whether it was riding horseback, playing ball, or just sitting and watching—it didn't make any difference, everybody had fun.



Swimmettes

"THE CLOWN COLOSSAL" was the frightfully funny, fabulous group of the big top. As in every circus, they added to the merriment and enjoyment of the audience. It was written and directed by Bonnie Creekmore.

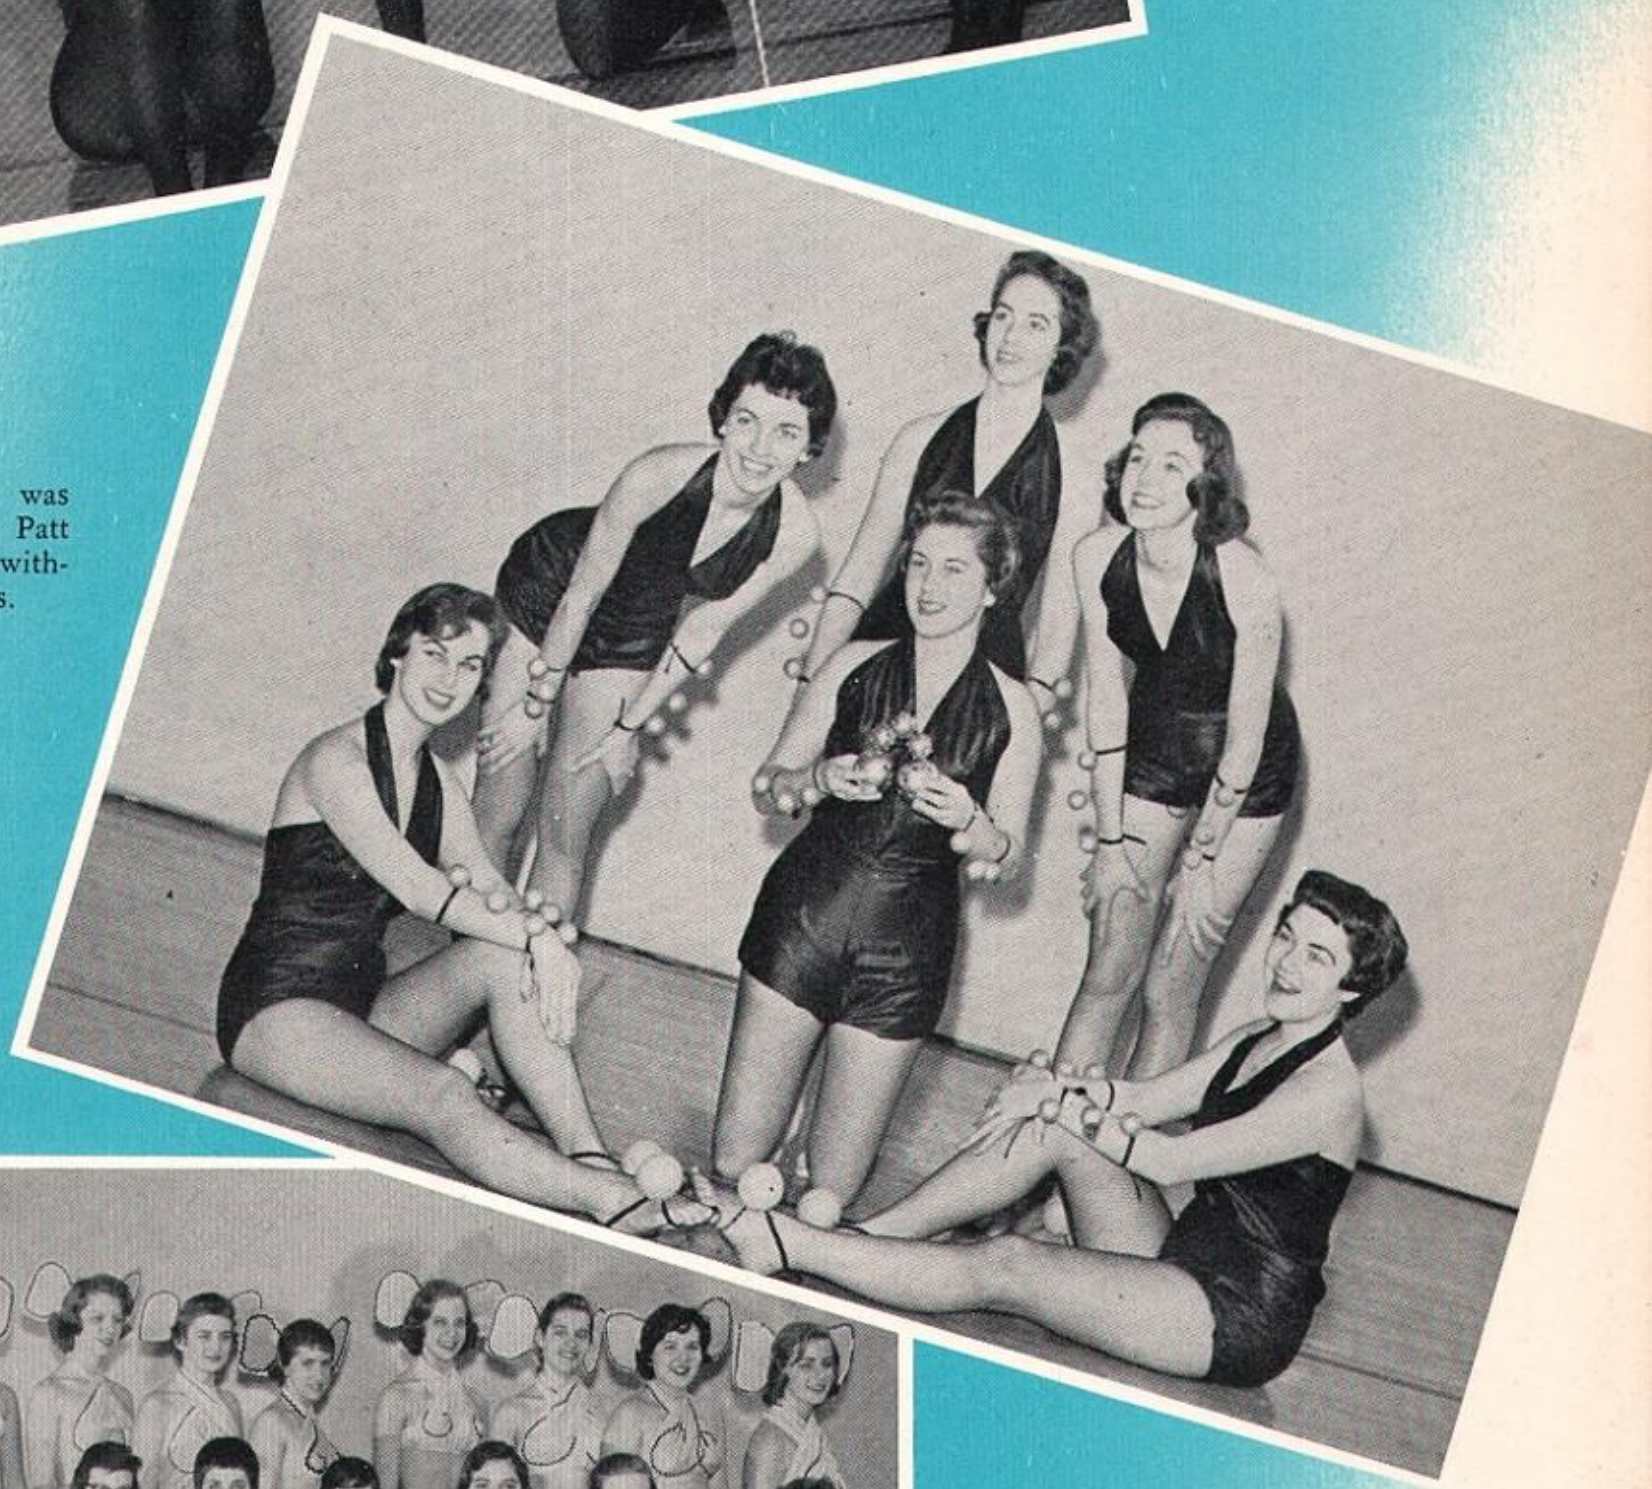


"THE PONY PROMENADE," the last act of our circus, was the rarest of the rare, and the purest of the pure—blooded Arabian stock. Jeannie Hamilton was the director.

"THE FROLIC OF THE FREAKS" consisted of The Deformed Demon, The Long-Haired Goon, and Winnie The Wild. From all over the world, "The Wettest Show on Earth" gathered this caravan of oddities. Kathy (Courageous) Barham directed the weird group.

Swimmettes

"THE MINSTREL SHOW," a musical addition, features six darkies. It was created by Fritzie Warren.



"THE JUGGLERS' JIVE" was written and directed by Patt Corry. No circus could do without these skilled performers.

"THE ELEPHANTS IN THE PINK" completed the circus. We were the only circus in the world to have our elephants as pink as champagne dreams. The elephants were under the auspices of Sally Hartley.

That

Great

Edison

Spirit

1957-58 was a tremendous year for Edison. We achieved high school stature in every sport and activity. The raising of the victory flag was always an occasion of pride.

We determined early this year that our mighty eagle would be more in evidence than before. We also decided that our collection of trophies would at least double in size this year. Edisonites are not content to be second in anything, so the spirit of the eagle symbolizes the fighting spirit that all Edisonites have.

Sophomore Play

The Sophomore Class of '57-'58 presented their production of "The Perfect Idiot," April 17 and 18. Since they gave us this fine performance as Sophomores, we have every reason to anticipate terrific plays during their next two years.

Ninth Grade Play

"Girl Crazy," a very appropriate title for any junior high school play, was presented in the auditorium on May 15 and 16, 1958. It was under the very capable direction of Mr. Harold Marcum.

Don Kahl, Jeff Musick, John McAuliffe, Jerry Tell, Buddy Barnes, Steve Somers, Gary Stephens, Susie Langenkamp, Elaine Ruggles, Markita Jones, Vicki Henthorne, Jan Neal, Linda Morgan, Janet Knippa, Barbara Vogel, Sigrid Sundvahl, Dave Curnutt, Danny Pentecost, and Charles Balch were chosen as the cast.

The Thespian Club was very happy to welcome this group to senior high.

Style Show

"SUGAR and SPICE" was a very appropriate title for our style show. If variety is the spice of life, we had spice aplenty. The girls made and modeled everything from formals to baby-doll pajamas.

Berniece Golden, Barbara Halstead, and Mary Klucevsek looked lovely in their evening fashions.

Kay Johns is justly proud of this smart sheath, which she made herself.

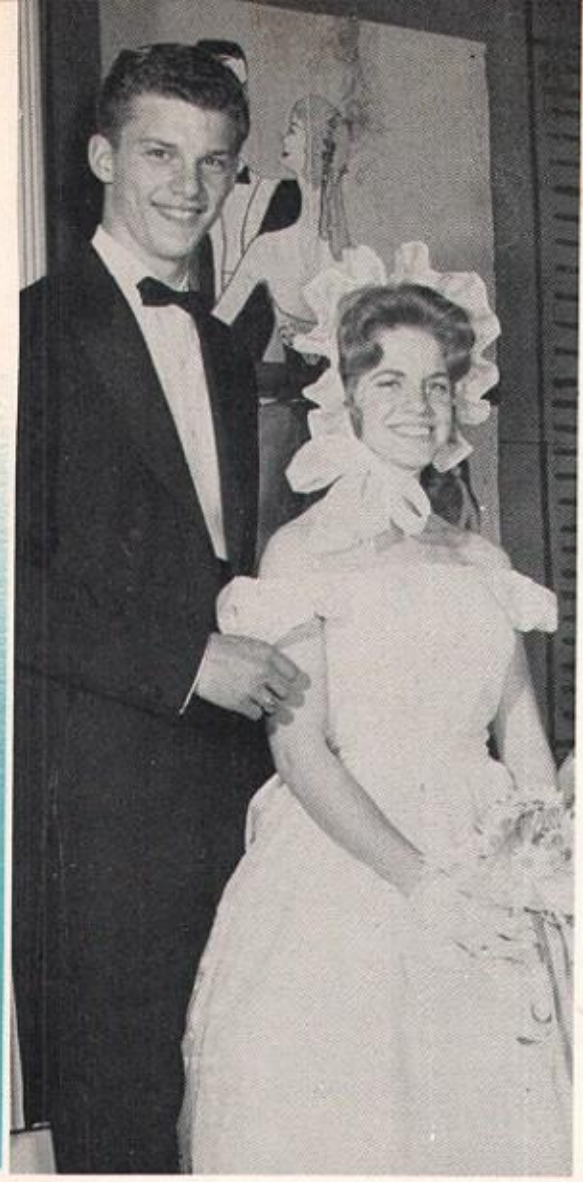
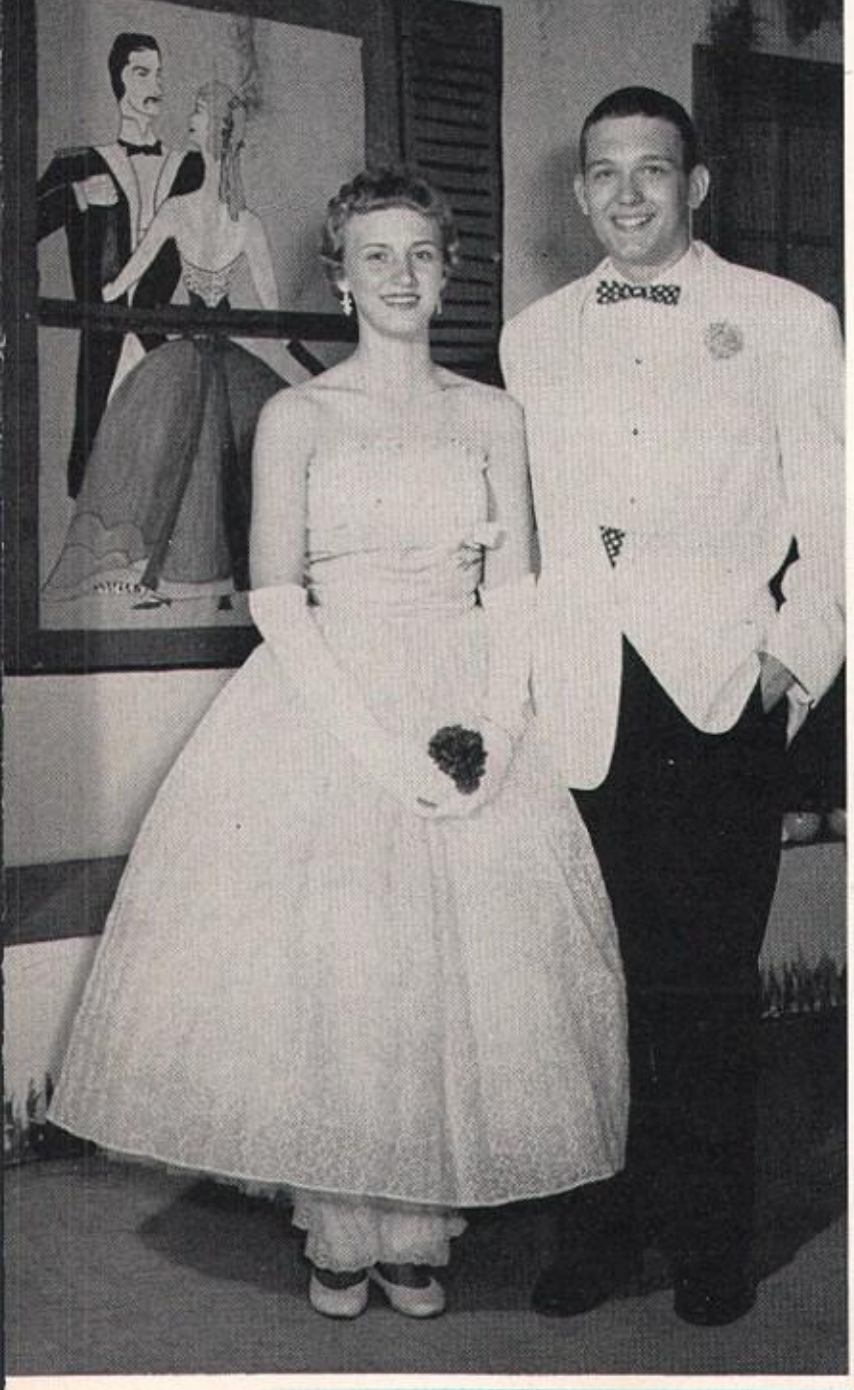
Southern Ball



In a spacious garden of a southern plantation, formerly known as the cafeteria, the first annual Southern Ball, sponsored by the Student Council, was held. Clusters of pink and white dogwood were grouped along the wall, twinkling stars blinked softly overhead, Spanish moss hung in spirals over the colorful scene, highlighting the gracious decor.

The Minstrel Show was held on the porch of the mansion.



Many couples came dressed in the traditional southern style.

Swimming

To the left we see the swimming queen and her attendants. They are Suzy Campbell, queen, Linda Johnson and Anita DiGiacomo, attendants.

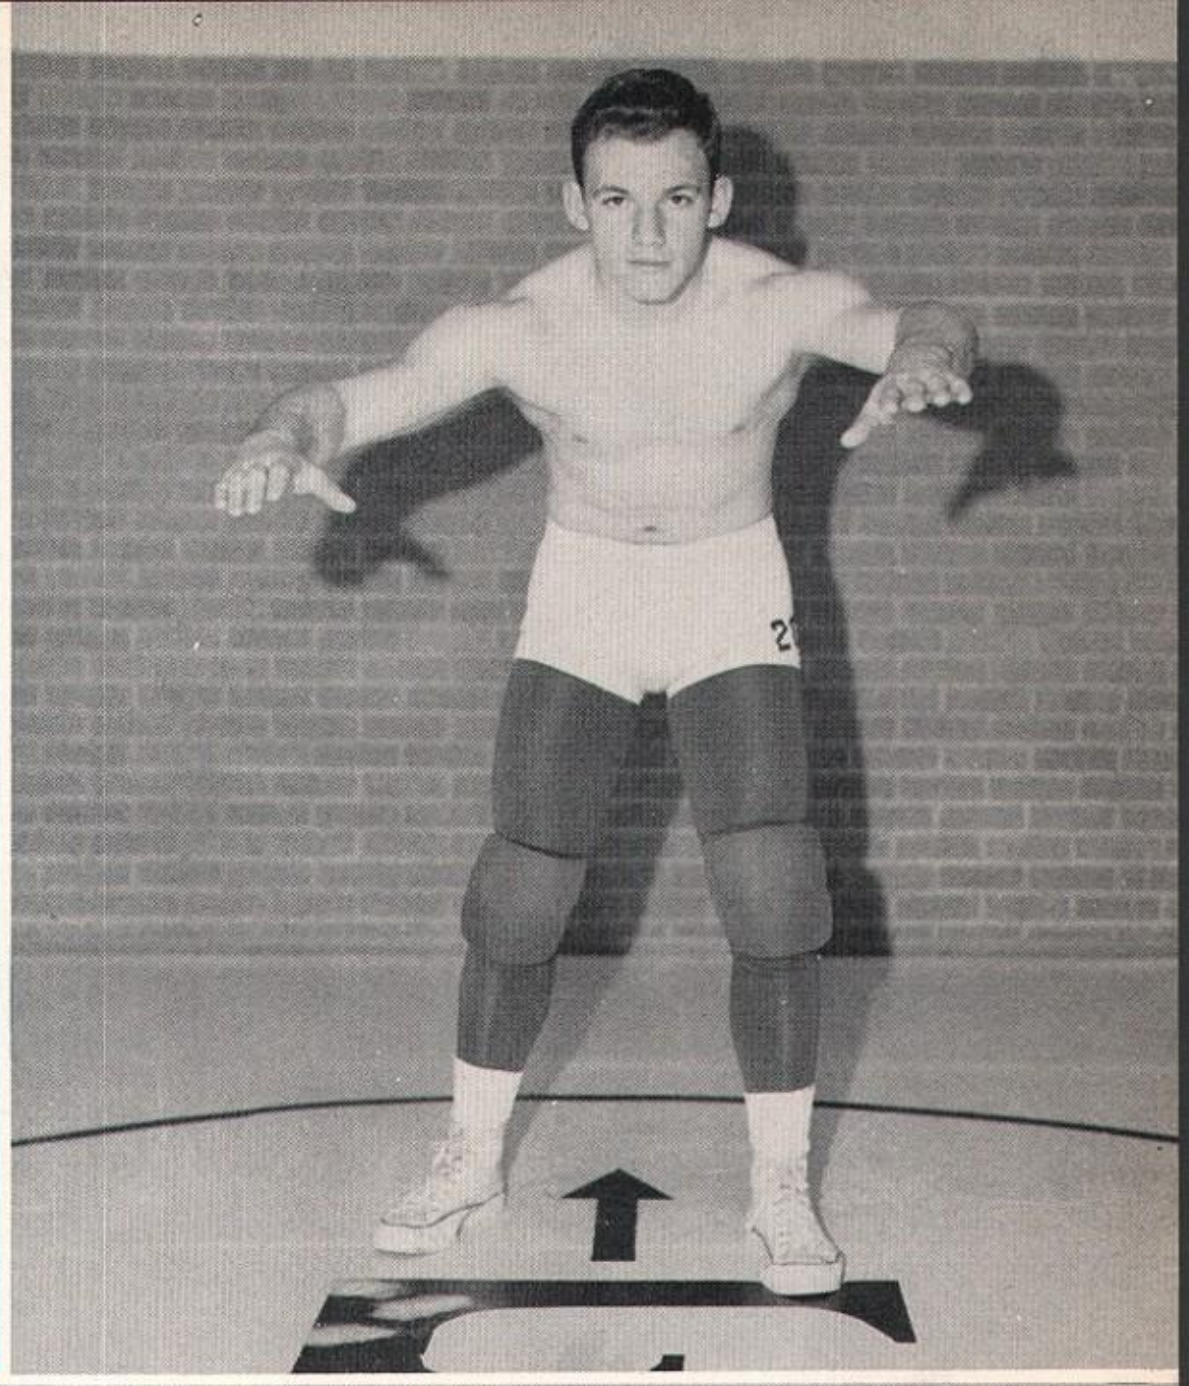
EDISON SWIM TEAM, led by All-American Carl Zahn, captured the city and state championships in the spring of 1958. This was Edison's first victory in both city and state meets.

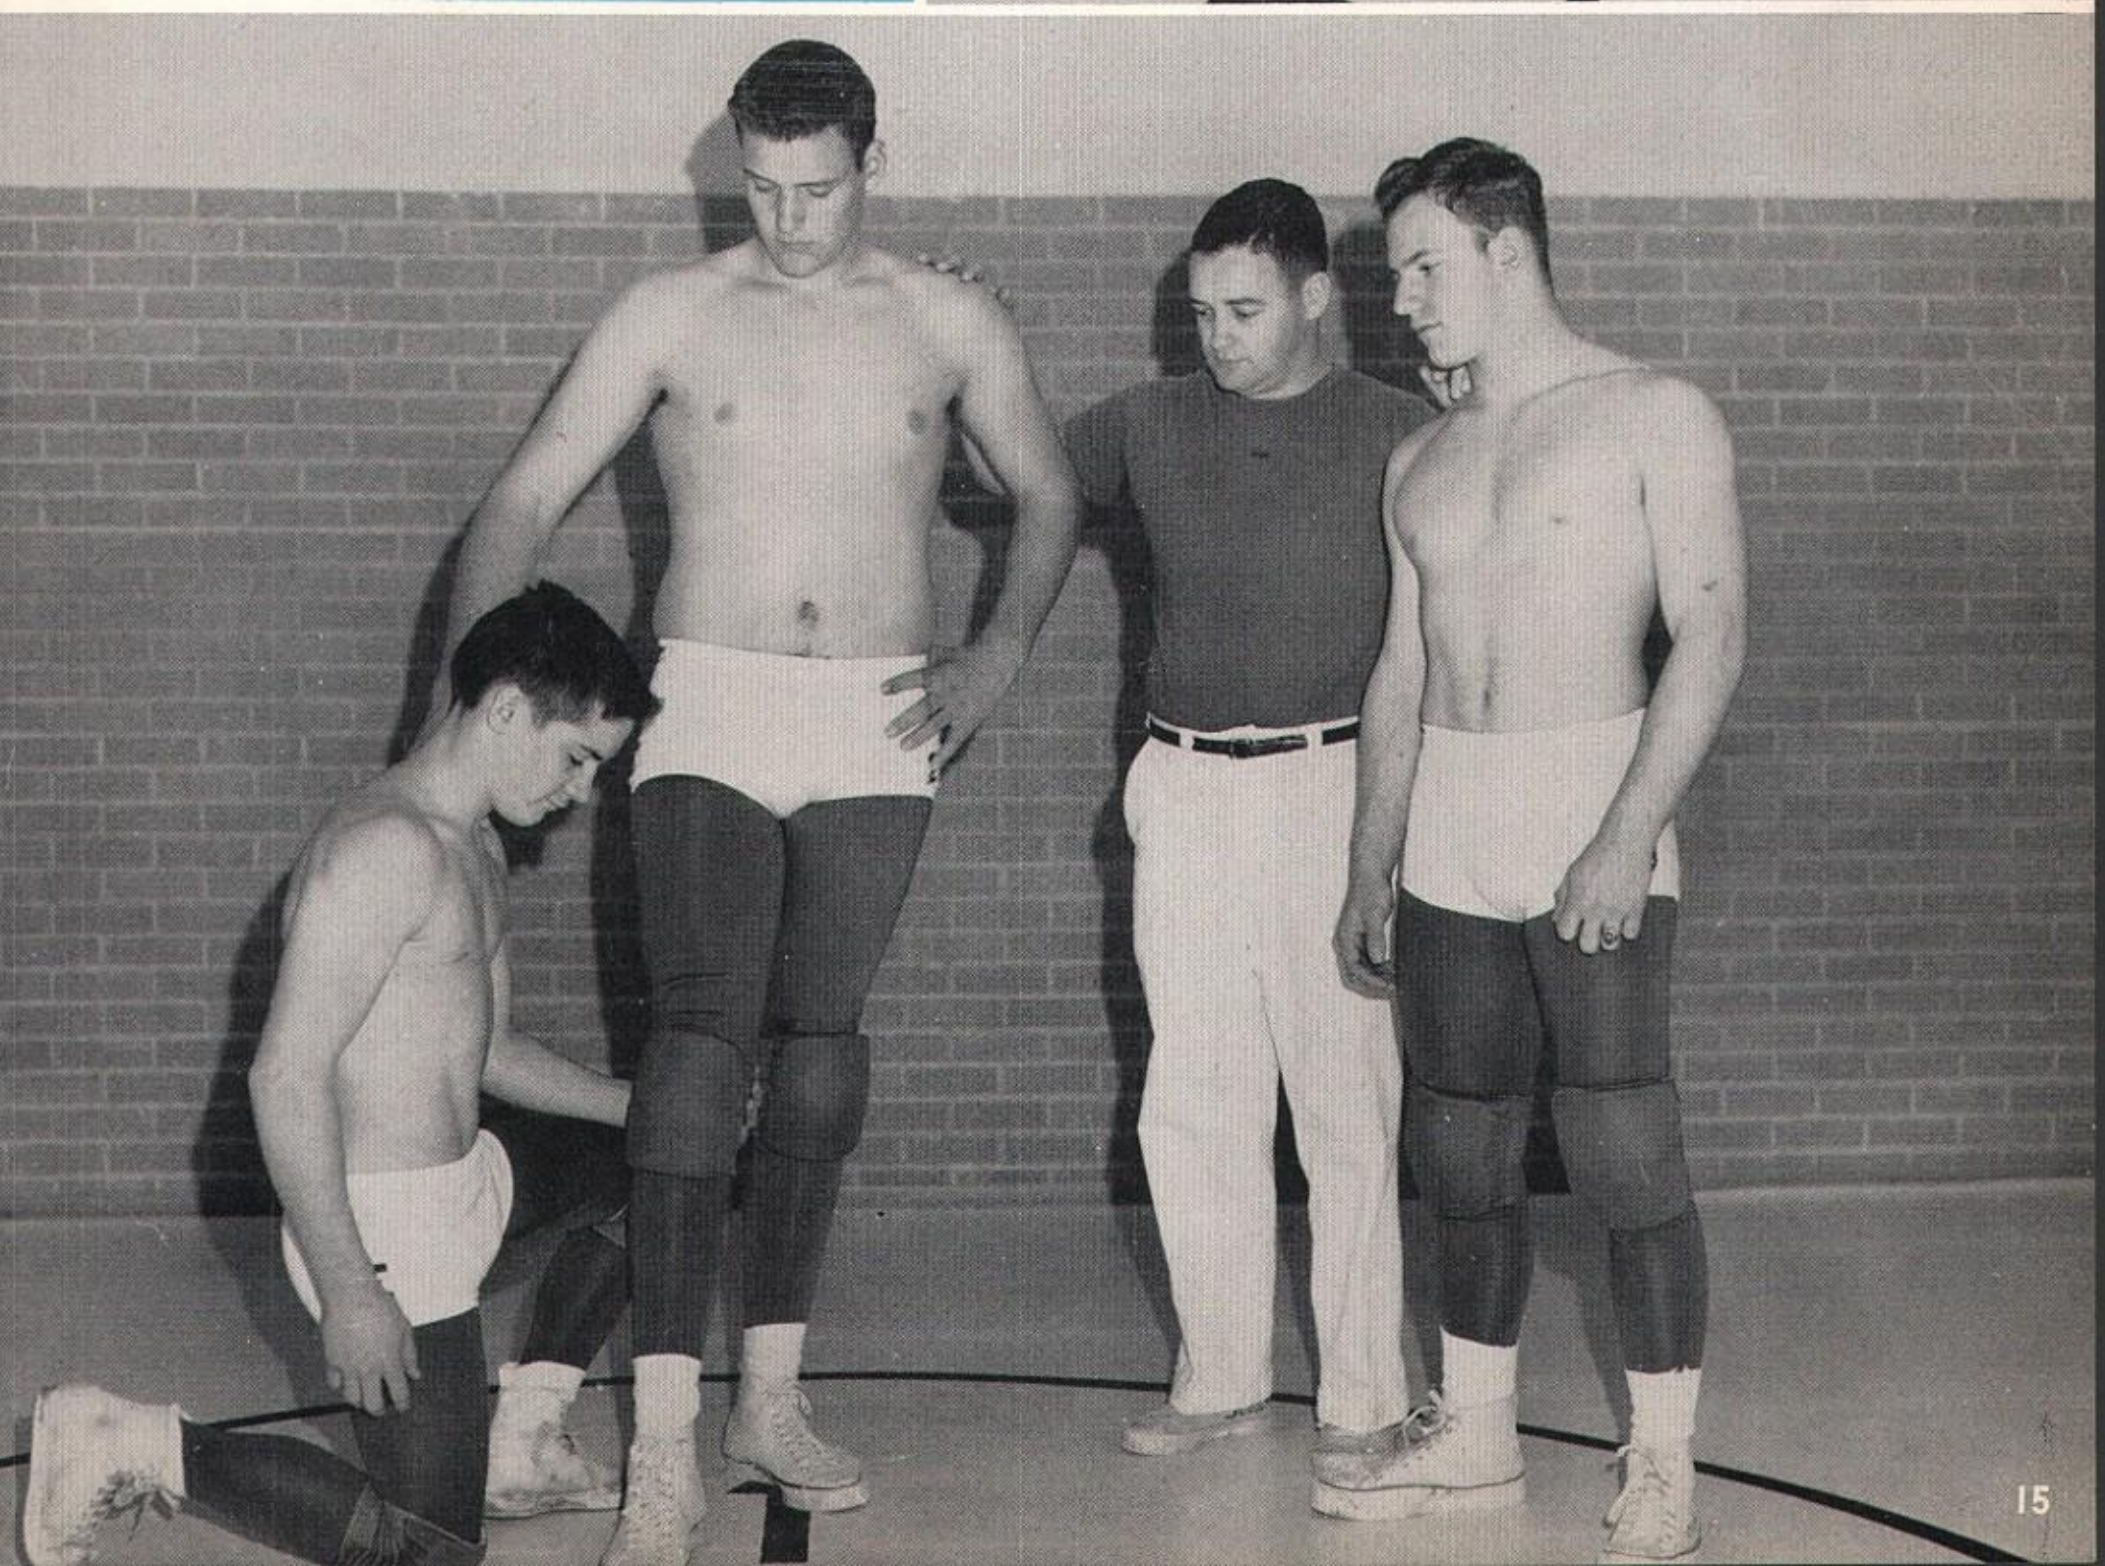
Wrestling

The EDISON WRESTLING TEAM had its first individual state champion in Charles Eaves, who also received the Outstanding Player Award at Edison.

The team tied for fifth in the regional meet at Daniel Webster High School and placed ninth in the state meet. Tom Webb and Dennis Dutsch both placed in the state meet.

Coach Jimmy Sellers was elected vice-president of Wrestling Coaches Association.





Junior-Senior Prom

A French couturier would have had a field day as a spectator at the first Edison Senior Banquet and Junior-Senior Prom. These two important occasions of the spring of 1958 were held in the beautiful Crystal Ballroom of the Mayo Hotel.

The banquet theme was "Pink Horizons." Our seniors felt that their years at Edison had so equipped them that their futures would assuredly be rosy ones. We who are left behind send our best wishes along with them, our first senior class.

These classes may have been inexperienced in these functions, but both were occasions of pride for the entire school.

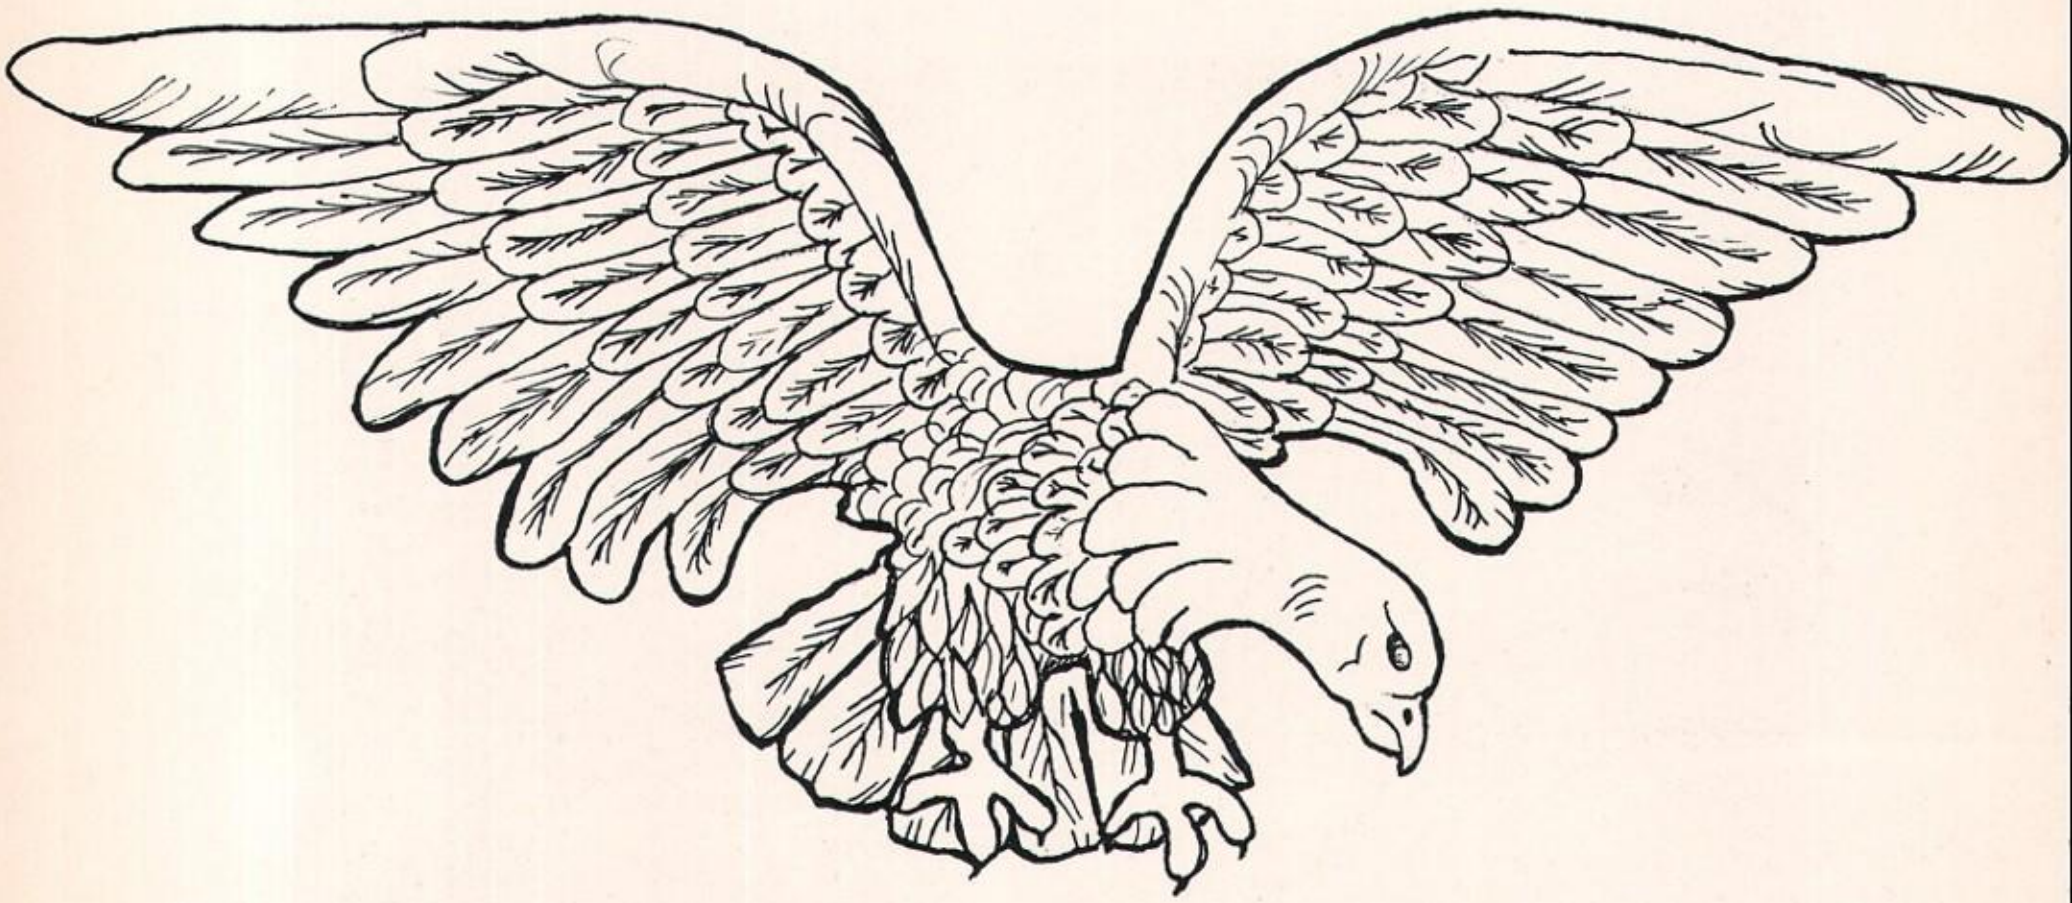
Foreword



Volume IV of the Torch goes to press from a much different school than the first volume did. We have attained full stature as a junior-senior high school. This growing-up process included many projects, plans, and dreams.

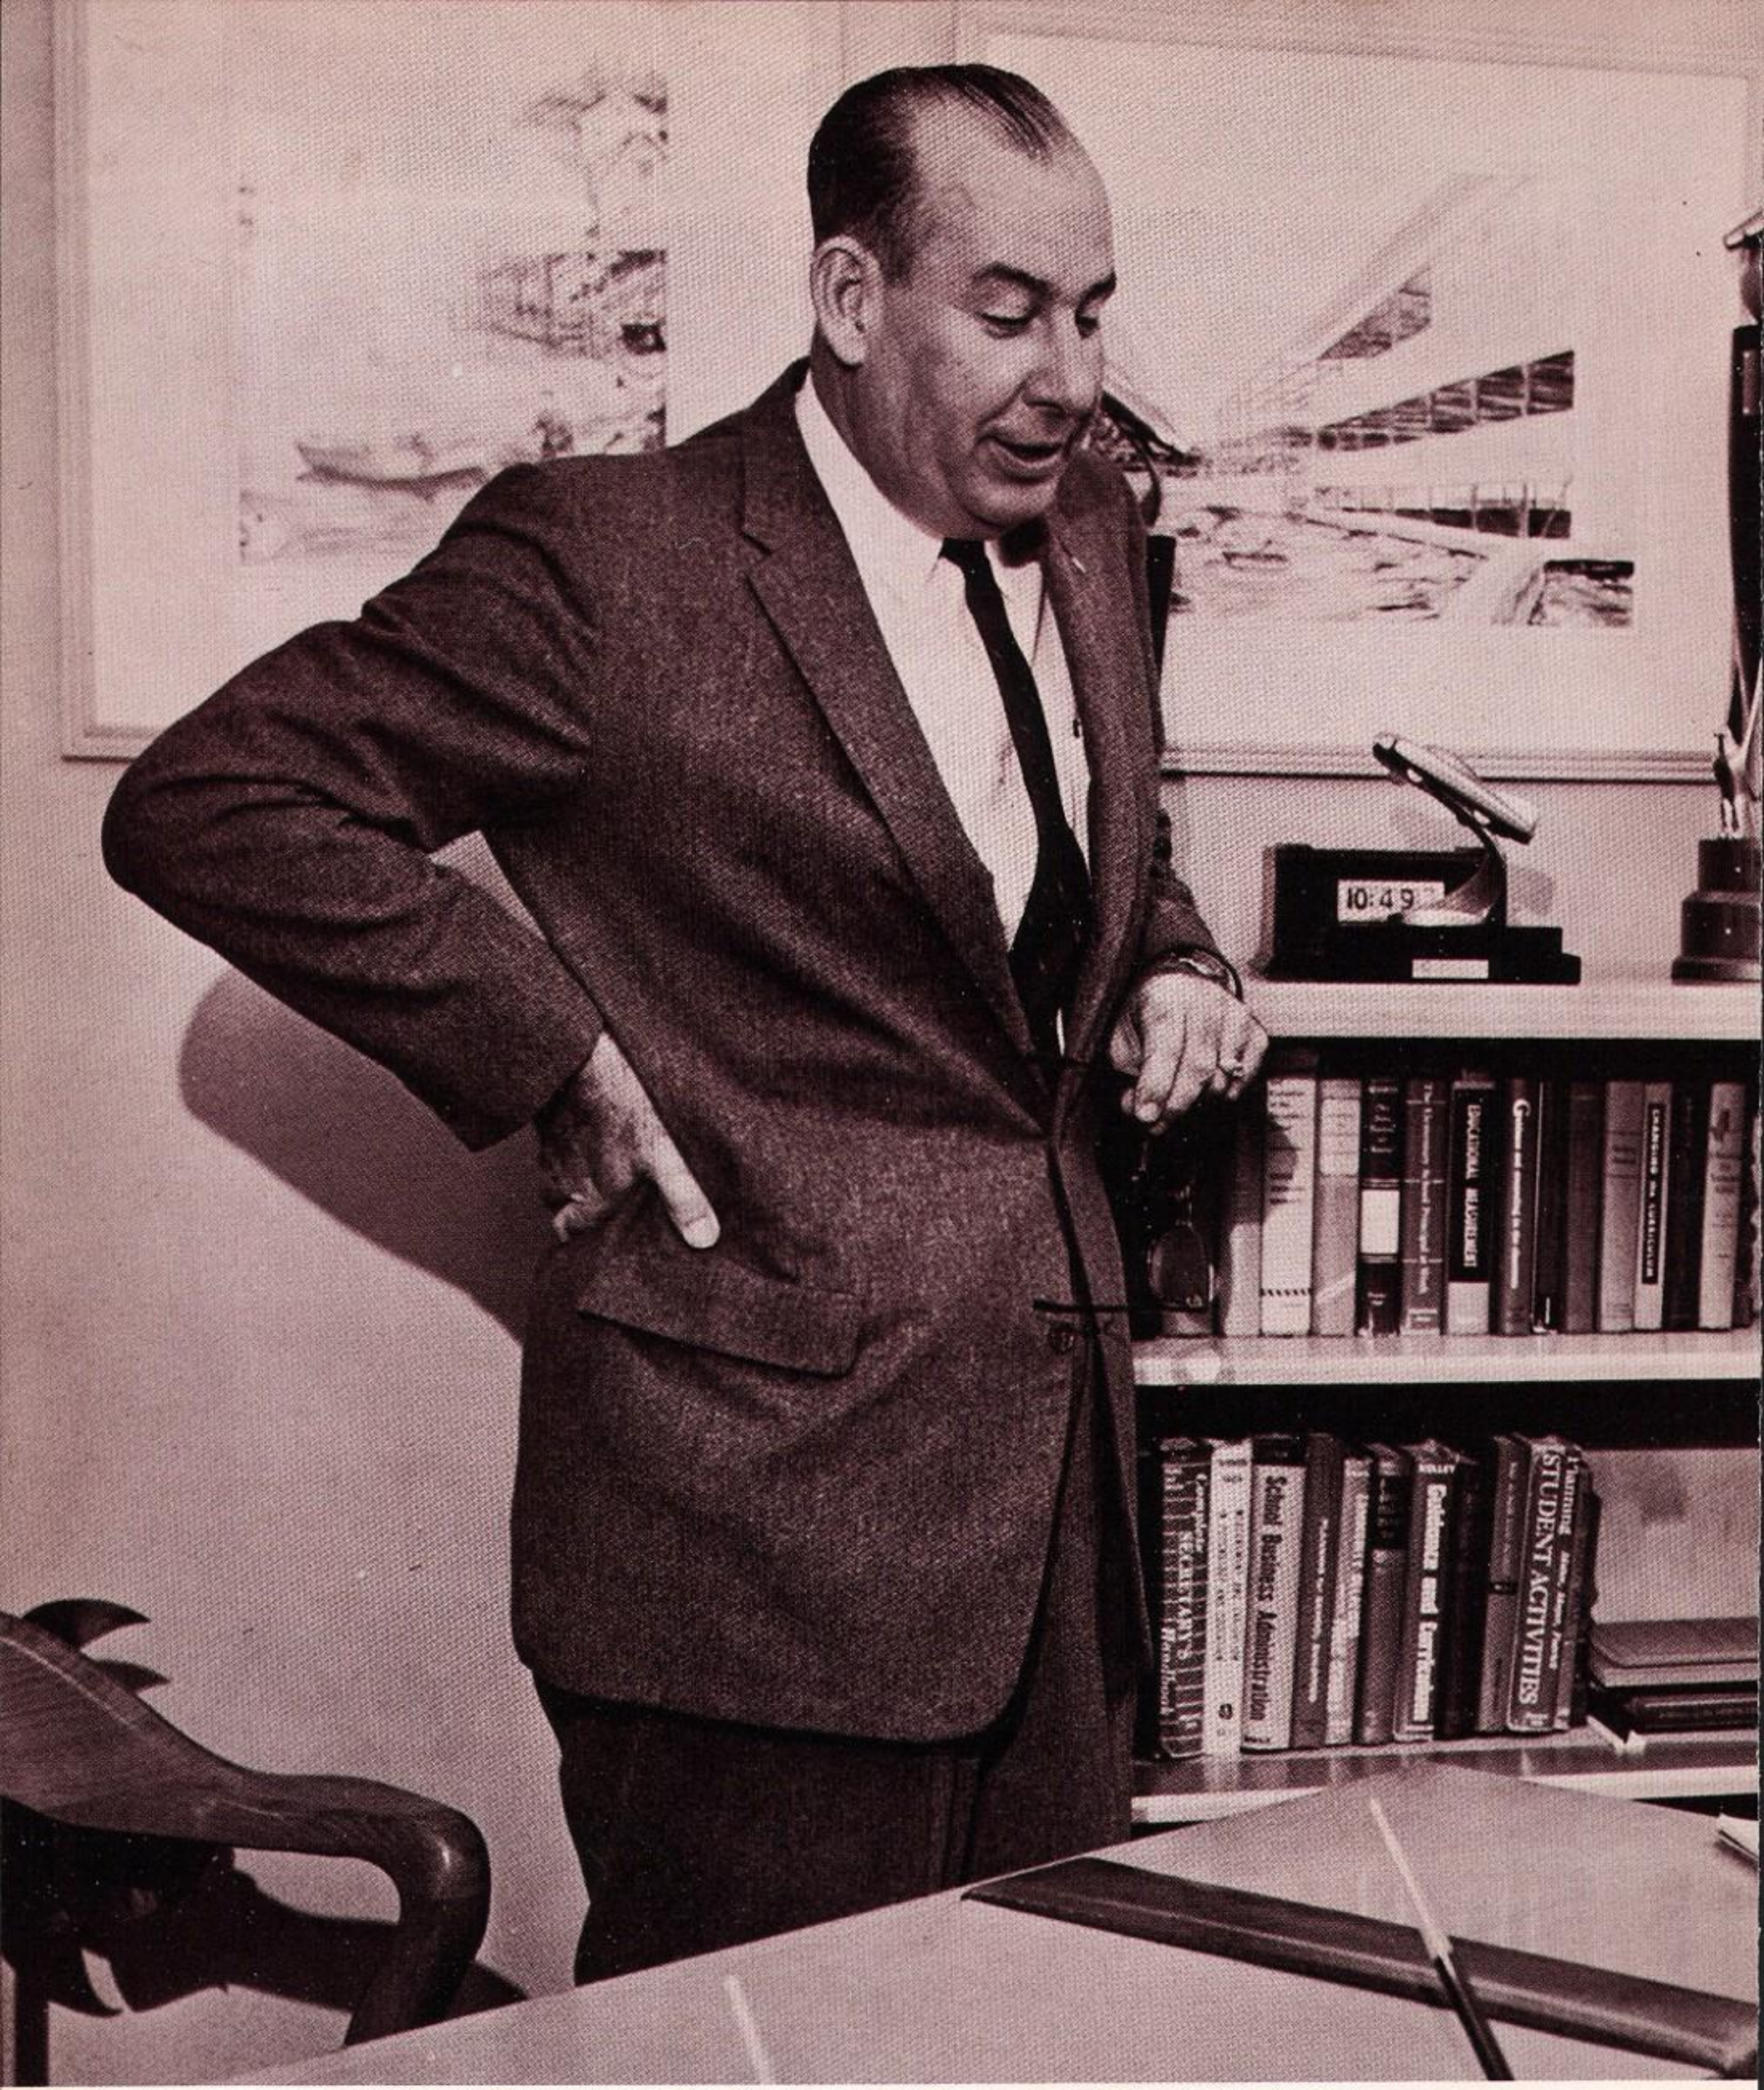
Operation Sod, magazine sales, canned foods drives, Chip in for Polio, and dressing up our band found a responsive student body. Our state champion swimmers and our first glowing football headlines assured us of our maturity.

The Torch staff humbly and proudly submits this volume to you in the hope that it will compare favorably with your outstanding records.

Dedication

History is full of cases of people whose service and devotion to duty are unrecognized and unrewarded. We want to reduce this number by one.

In recognition of the many hours spent each week, the valuable assistance in scheduling, the tireless research on scholarships available to Edison students, and the personal interest in all of us, we, the Torch staff, dedicate this fourth volume to Mr. Roy Lewis.



Administration

Dr. Hiram Alexander

— Principal

Dr. Charles C. Mason
— Superintendent of Schools

Adminis

Mr. Bonde and Mr. Cleveland have undertaken the task of assistant principal of the Senior and Junior High respectively. Their time is generously devoted to the welfare of Edison's student body.

It is unusual to see Mr. Lewis, Mr. Martens, and Mr. Hamm standing idle, due to their t i m e-consuming jobs. Mr. Lewis is the Director of Scheduling, Scholarship and Testing; Mr. Martens is in charge of the bank, and Mr. Hamm is a ninth grade counselor.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. H. G. Barnett
Mr. Armon H. Bost
Mrs. J. Littleton Daniel
Mr. Ellis Gable
Mr. Jos. M. Green
Mr. John G. Staudt
Mrs. Virgil O. Wood

tration

Mrs. Wiest, Senior High dean of girls, and Mr. Rathjens, eighth grade counselor, are always willing to listen to students' problems and lend a helping hand.

Mr. Garner, Mr. Griffin and Mr. Keeter, Senior High counselors, guide the students' footsteps in preparation for entering a successful life.

The students of Edison will be forever indebted to the Board of Education for the opportunity to attend Edison. The modern architecture blends in with our modern way of learning.

School

The high school office is one of the friendliest and most efficient spots around our school. This condition exists because of Mrs. George; Mrs. Shepherd; Mrs. Le Master, our school nurse; Mrs. Bolt; and Mrs. Taylor.

These are the women that prepare the food each day for the many high school students. They deserve a lot of credit for a job well done.

CUSTODIANS

These men are in charge of keeping our high school clean and in a presentable order at all times. They are some of the friendliest and well-liked men at Edison.

Personnel

Mrs. "Little Doc" Duncan, the junior high nurse, Mrs. Clannin, Mrs. Berlin, Mrs. McClain, and Mrs. Myers keep the junior high machine running smoothly.

This group does an equally fine job for the Junior High.

CUSTODIANS

These fine gentlemen are the ones responsible for keeping our Junior High School corridors and grounds in tiptop shape. Aside from being industrious they are extremely friendly toward all the students.

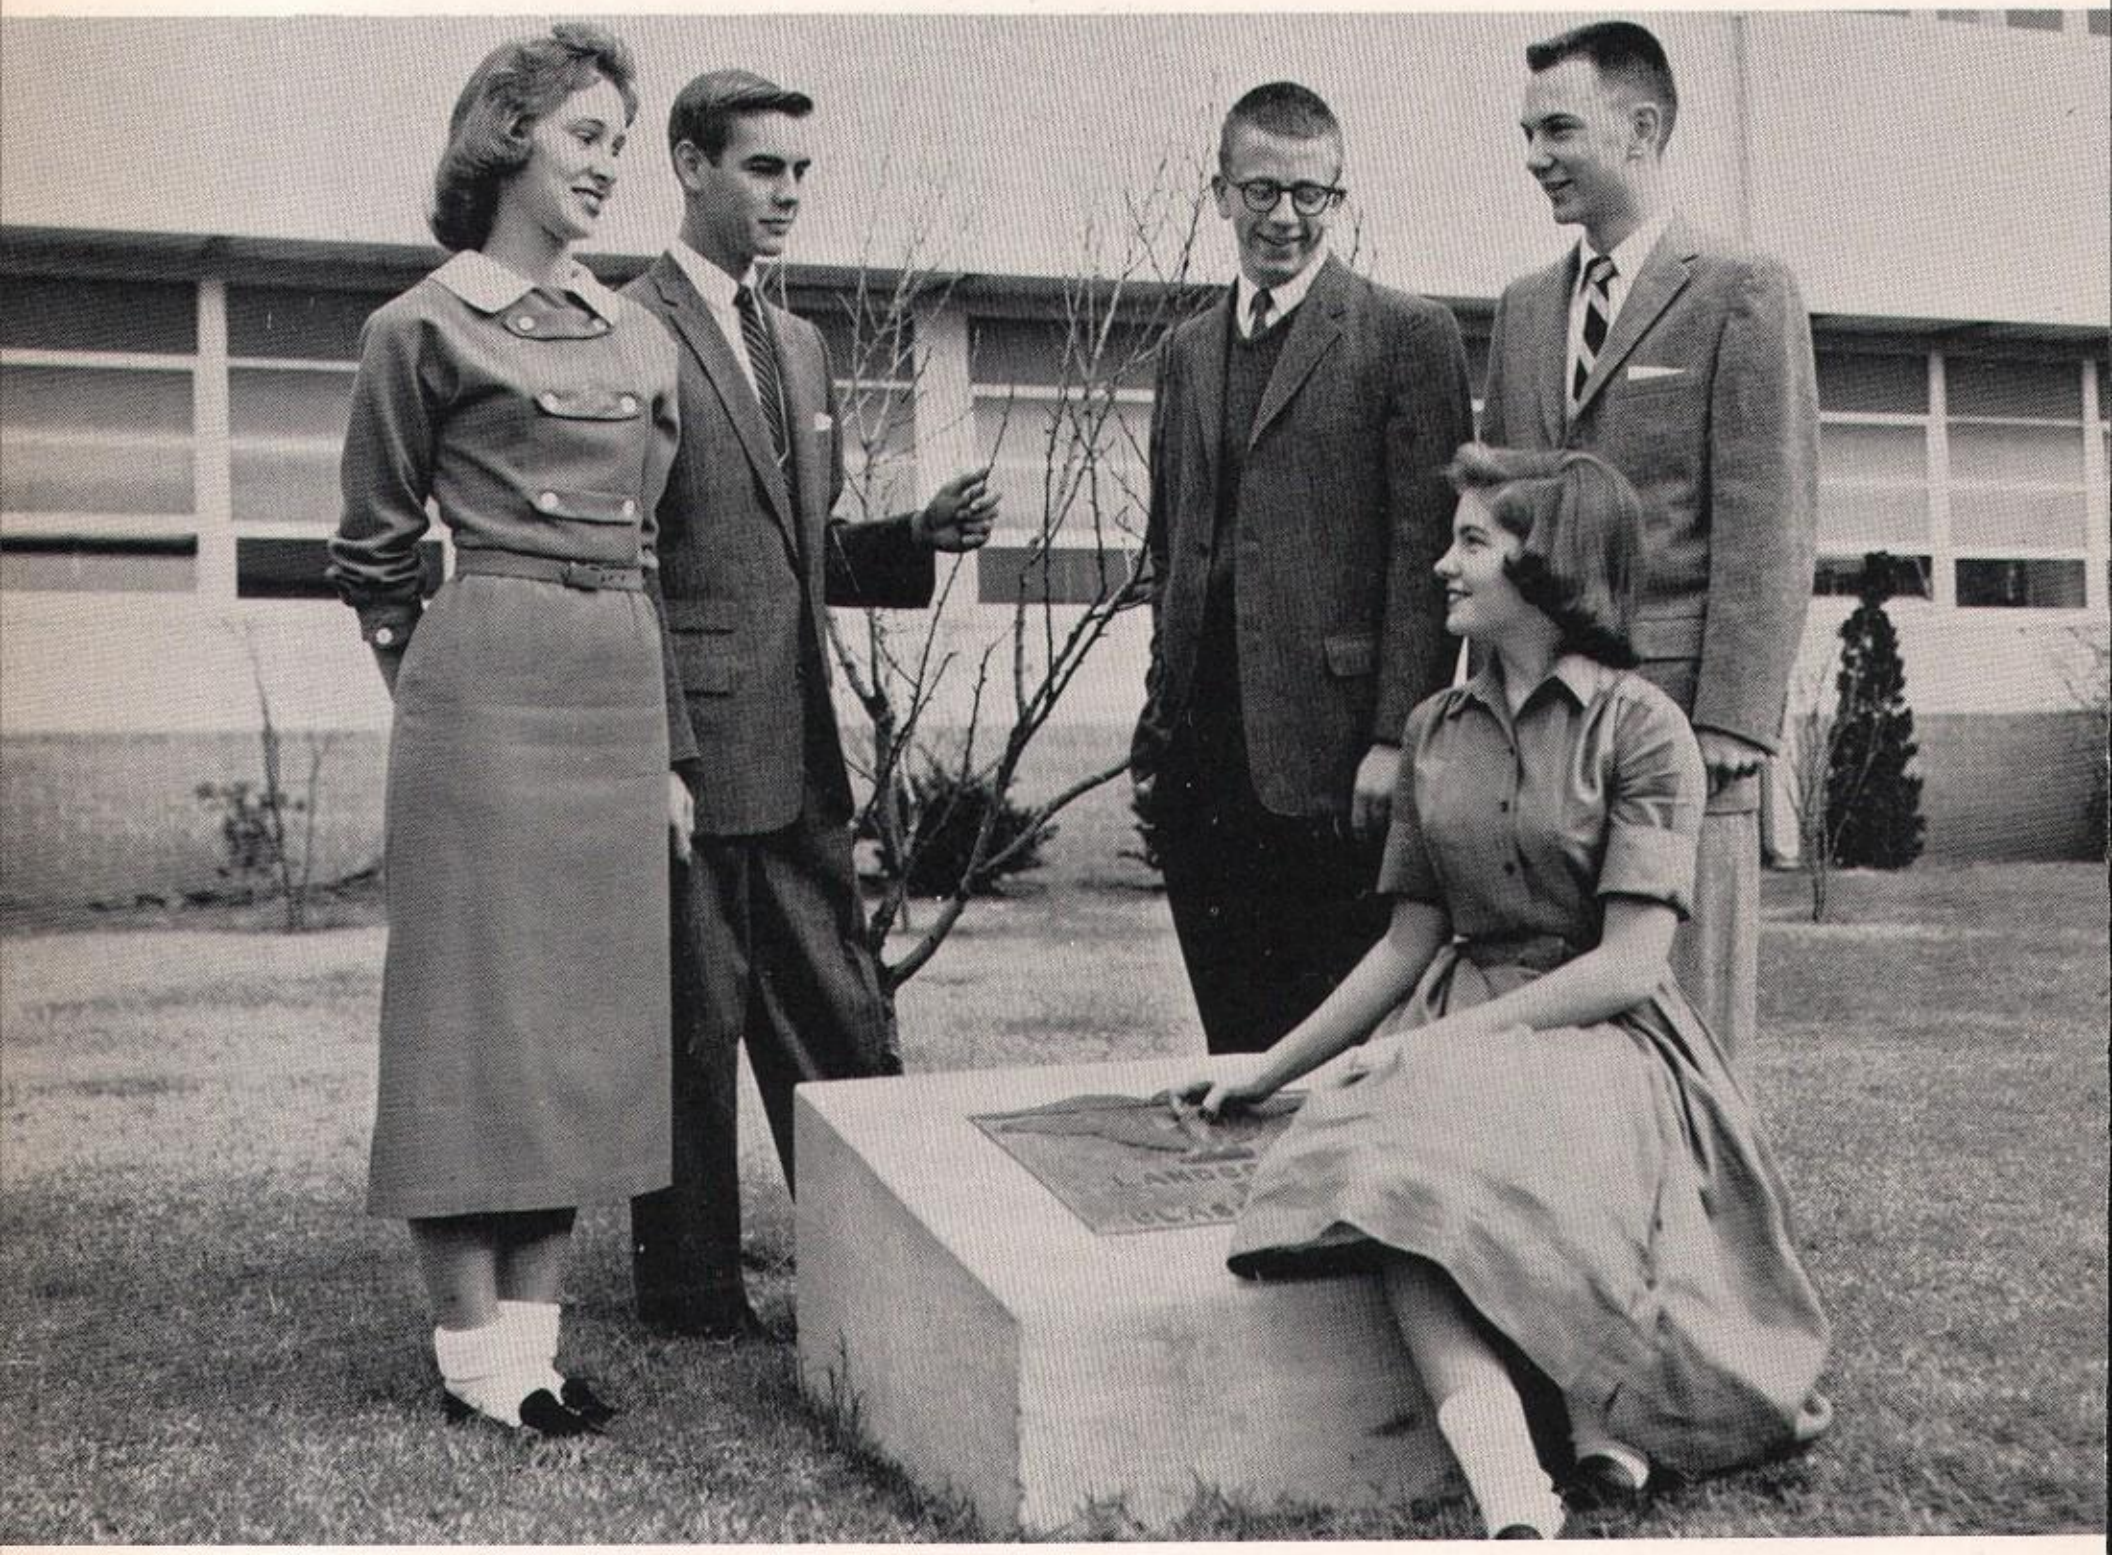
Class of 1959



The Senior Class of 1959 got off to a good start by electing five fine officers to lead and serve the class. Pati McKee was chosen as Secretary, John Sharkey, President; Bob Bascom, Treasurer; Bill Wines was chosen Vice-President, and Suzy Campbell was the Social Chairman.

The Officers were here holding a conference around the plaque left by the first senior class, planning for newer and better horizons for the Senior Class of 1959.

Senior Class Board

The Senior Board is composed of the class officers and one representative from each twelfth grade homeroom.

These people had a great responsibility in the handling of class problems. Their good judgment has made possible a most successful year for the second senior class of Edison.

Mr. Stan Harrison served as a fine pilot for this organization.

An able crew piloted the junior class through an outstanding year. No wonder their efforts were so well co-ordinated, with Herb Arst, treasurer; Linda Henderson, social chairman; Ted Larkin, president; David Schuman, Vice-President; and Anita Di Giacomo, secretary.

Junior Class Board

The Junior Board, made up of class officers and an elected representative from each eleventh grade homeroom, found much responsibility attached to their job. They proved themselves early in the year by doing a bang-up job on a mixer with only three days' notice. Miss Marian Dark gave this group tremendous assistance as their sponsor.

In Memoriam

Though Edison is large in numbers, we still feel the absence of

MARY ELLEN RAMSEY and JIM LEVINS

Class of 1960

Class of 1961

Phil Hope served his class as president; Sue Shelby was a most capable secretary; Fred Slicker proved to be a fine vice-president; Steve Kimball, as treasurer, kept the purse strings tight; and Jo El Tucker, seated, gave the Perle Mesta touch to class social functions.

Sophomore Class Board

Each sophomore homeroom chose a representative to work with the class officers on the Sophomore Board. These people started the year with ambitious plans and exhibited excellent judgment and dedication to the proposition that sophomores should take a responsible place in school life. Miss Berna Dean Morrow sponsored the class.

The sophomore class contributed its share of glamour with its attendants for Miss Edison. They were Jo El Tucker, escorted by Jon Running, and Shirley Rodgers, squired by Johnny Duval.

Class of 1962

The ninth grade class planned all year for the time when they would be in high school, and you may be sure that their participation in school activities will begin with a bang the moment they reach the halls at the east end of the building.

The class demonstrated that they are able to choose capable leaders when they chose the following officers: Scotty Chalmers, vice-president; Tommy Fowler, treasurer; Larry Hone, president; and Nancy Singleton, secretary.

The seventh grade always walks off with a lion's share of the prizes in the annual magazine drive. We are all indebted to these industrious young people. The president's black eye was given him by a baseball, and, though it doesn't show here, his other eye matched this one.

The officers are: Pete Byars, president; Eileen Freeman, treasurer; Karen Forsman, secretary; and Jackie Frost, vice-president.

Senior High Student Council

The Student Council is the representative body of Edison students, being composed of a representative from each home room, club, class, and five members-at-large. It serves as a forum for student ideas and opinions, and through the Student Council the students are able to more fully realize and appreciate the democratic privileges and responsibilities of self-government. The Student Council in its effort to serve and benefit the entire student body of Edison, is organized into committees.

The range of its services, as evidenced by its many committees, extends from the promotion of school pride and loyalty through the School Spirit committee and the annual canned goods drive which is a project of the Charity Committee, to the Christmas post office, which delivers mail to the student body. A first this year was the raising of funds to sponsor a Foreign Exchange student. The Council also publishes "The Guiding Light," a handbook, and "Edison Calling," the student directory. The election of class officers, Miss Edison, Girl-of-the-Year, and other school-wide elections are under the auspices of the Council. The effort of many students goes into the Council's Southern Ball, held in the spring, as well as into the many other annual projects sponsored by the Council.

Organizations

Junior High Student Council

The Junior High Student Council serves the student body in many ways. It serves as a guide in developing the student into a citizen of whom Edison can be proud.

The Council carries on many worthwhile activities and projects, as well as publishing such pamphlets and leaflets as the Guiding Light, a handbook which is given to each student free of charge, and the student directories. They also take part in the annual Thanksgiving canned goods drive and the babies milk fund at Christmas, in which 1,110 cans were collected from the Junior High. This group honored the teachers with "teacher appreciation day."

Another project was the Buddy Wilkie fund for a boy who was hospitalized and whose father was killed the same day that he entered the hospital. He was furnished with a television in his room for the duration of his illness and a cash gift of $135. They also sent sympathy cards when a death occurred in the family, and get well cards to each student absent three days or hospitalized.

The Council placed flowers on the office desk and decorated the Student Council Christmas Tree in the foyer.

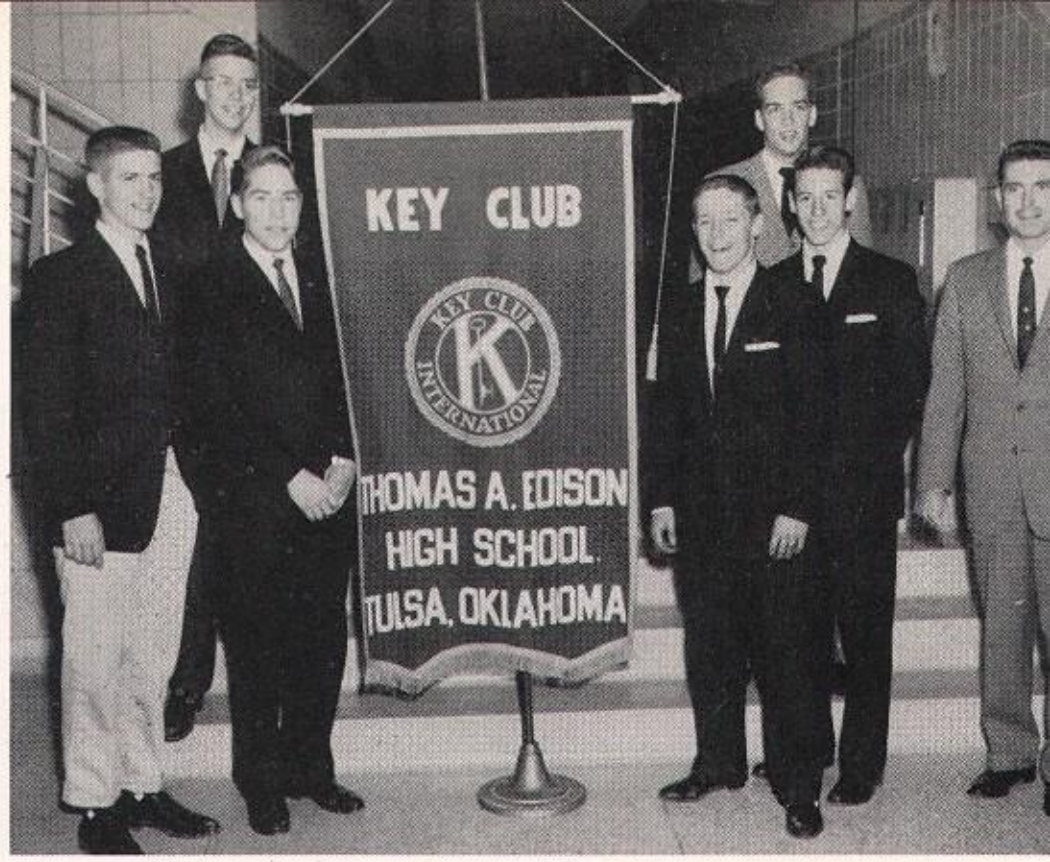
Organizations



The Edison Key Club is proud to be the home club of Van Smithi Lieutenant Governor of Division 15. Our rolls also include Stude Council, class, and club officers. Sponsor of the organization is M Stan Harrison, a member of the faculty. Pictured above are: Pet Gubser, Gene Brown, Van Smithin, Ronnie Weiszmann, Danny Staud Charlie Kothe, and Mr. Harrison.

The EDISON KEY CLUB is a service organization sponsored by the Utica Square Kiwanis. The club's projects have been numerous and varied Key Club spearheaded the school clean-up campaign and performed important functions in the Student Council's Canned Goods Drive. Members of the club also participated in many community projects, such as distributing posters for various civic groups, and helping at the Children's Medical Cented. The club's normal duties of ushering at school functions were also carried out. A successful fund-raising project was the Faculty-Key Club basketball game.

The JUNIOR RED CROSS is an organization made up of representatives from each homeroom. They put on programs for the Children's Medical Center, the Veteran's Hospital, and the County Farm and end up the year with a weekend convention. There are international projects as well as local.

Organizations

The INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB is composed of students interested in the national and international aspects of the news and the analysis of it. The biggest single activity of the year was the State International Relations Club's convention held here at Edison. This was in October and most of the fall activity of the club was centered around the convention.

The officers are: Bob Dean, president; Bill Fitzgerald, vice-president; Pat Henry, secretary; John Fredenberger, treasurer.

The EDISON JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS' LEADER CORPS originated in 1954. The girls in this organization assist in the girls physical education department. Their main objective is to strive for better leadership and higher ideals in every phase of life. The officers are: Patti Sue Curby, president; Emily Cole, vice-president; Paula Desjardens, secretary; Kaye Wilson, sergeant-at-arms.

"Ah! how I wish I could play chess!" How many times have you heard that statement? Not many? Well, that's because everyone who belongs to the EDISON JUNIOR HIGH CHESS CLUB already knows how to play this grand old game. Meetings are held once a week. Mr. Poe is the sponsor of this group.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The Junior Classical League of Edison is a branch of the state as well as the National Junior Classical League whose main purpose is to promote a better understanding of the Latin language and classical culture.

The outstanding event was the State Convention which was held at the University of Oklahoma this year. The Edison Chapter holds the office of Vice-President in the state.

The club also shows throughout the year motion pictures of cultural value.

Mrs. Marie Ferguson and Mrs. Dorothy Cook are the sponsors. The Edison Chapter has the largest membership of the entire state of Oklahoma. Our group consists of 130 members, all of whom contribute culture to our school.

Organizations

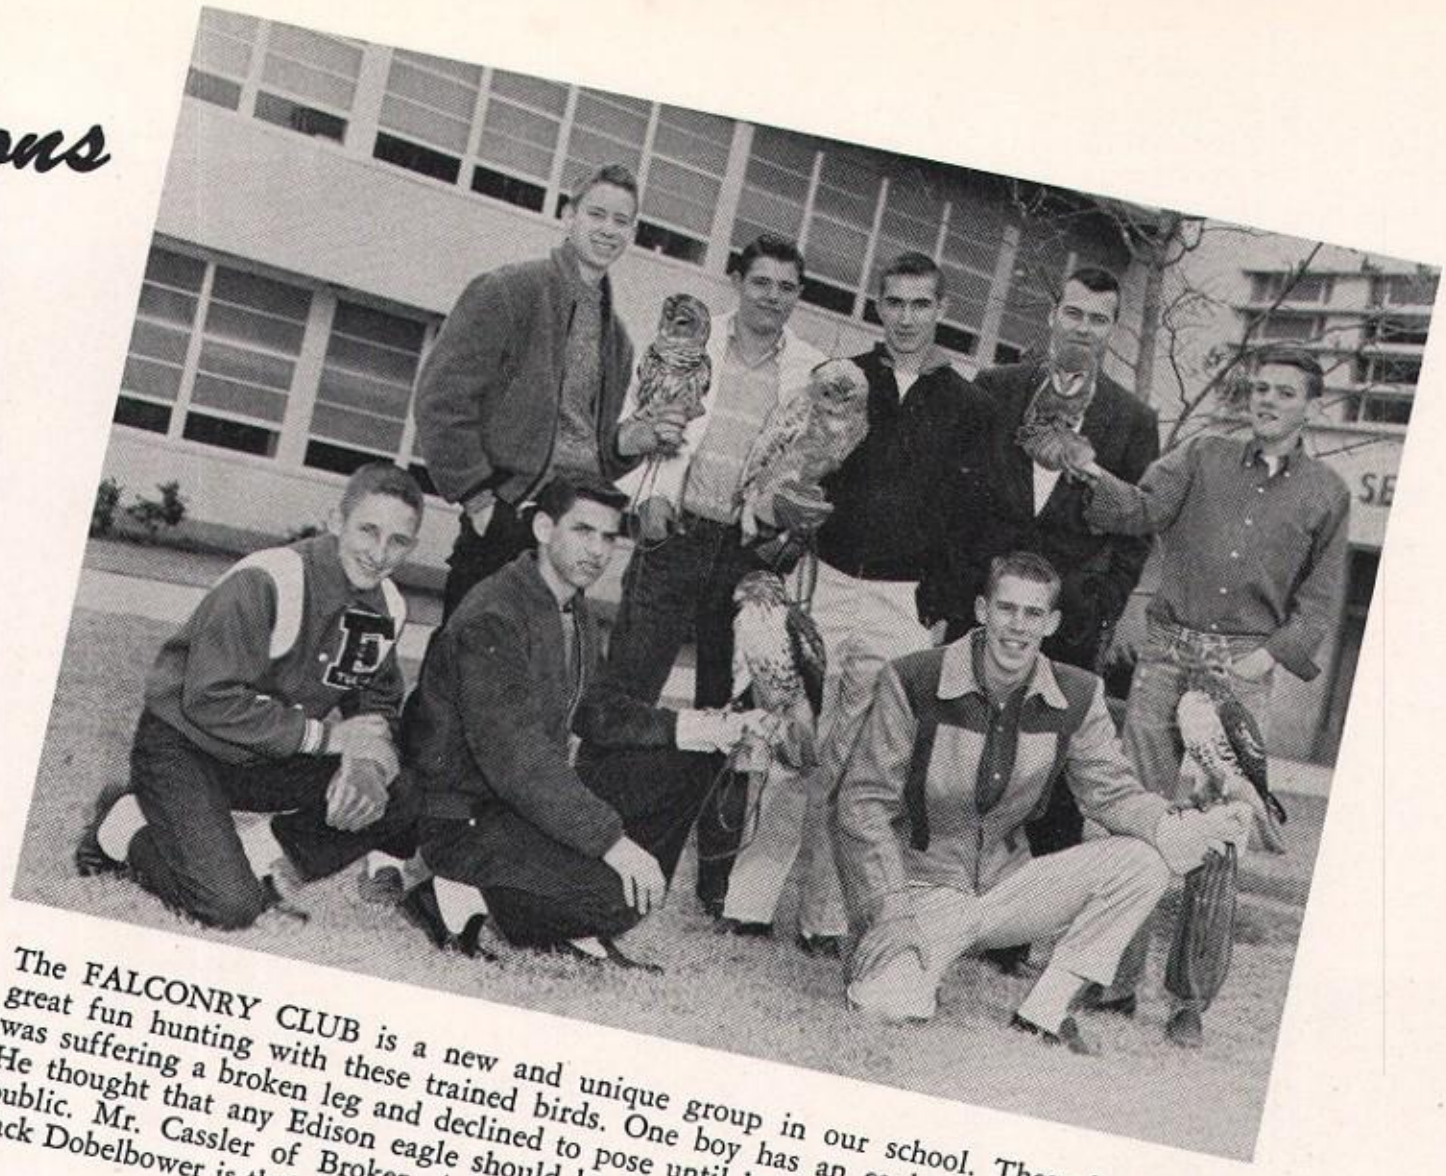
This year's French Club had a French breakfast in the cafeteria. Peter Gubser told about summer in France and Ralph Smith told about living in French West Africa.

Movies and slides of trips in France have been shown to the French Club by Jack Rippy and Judy Upton.

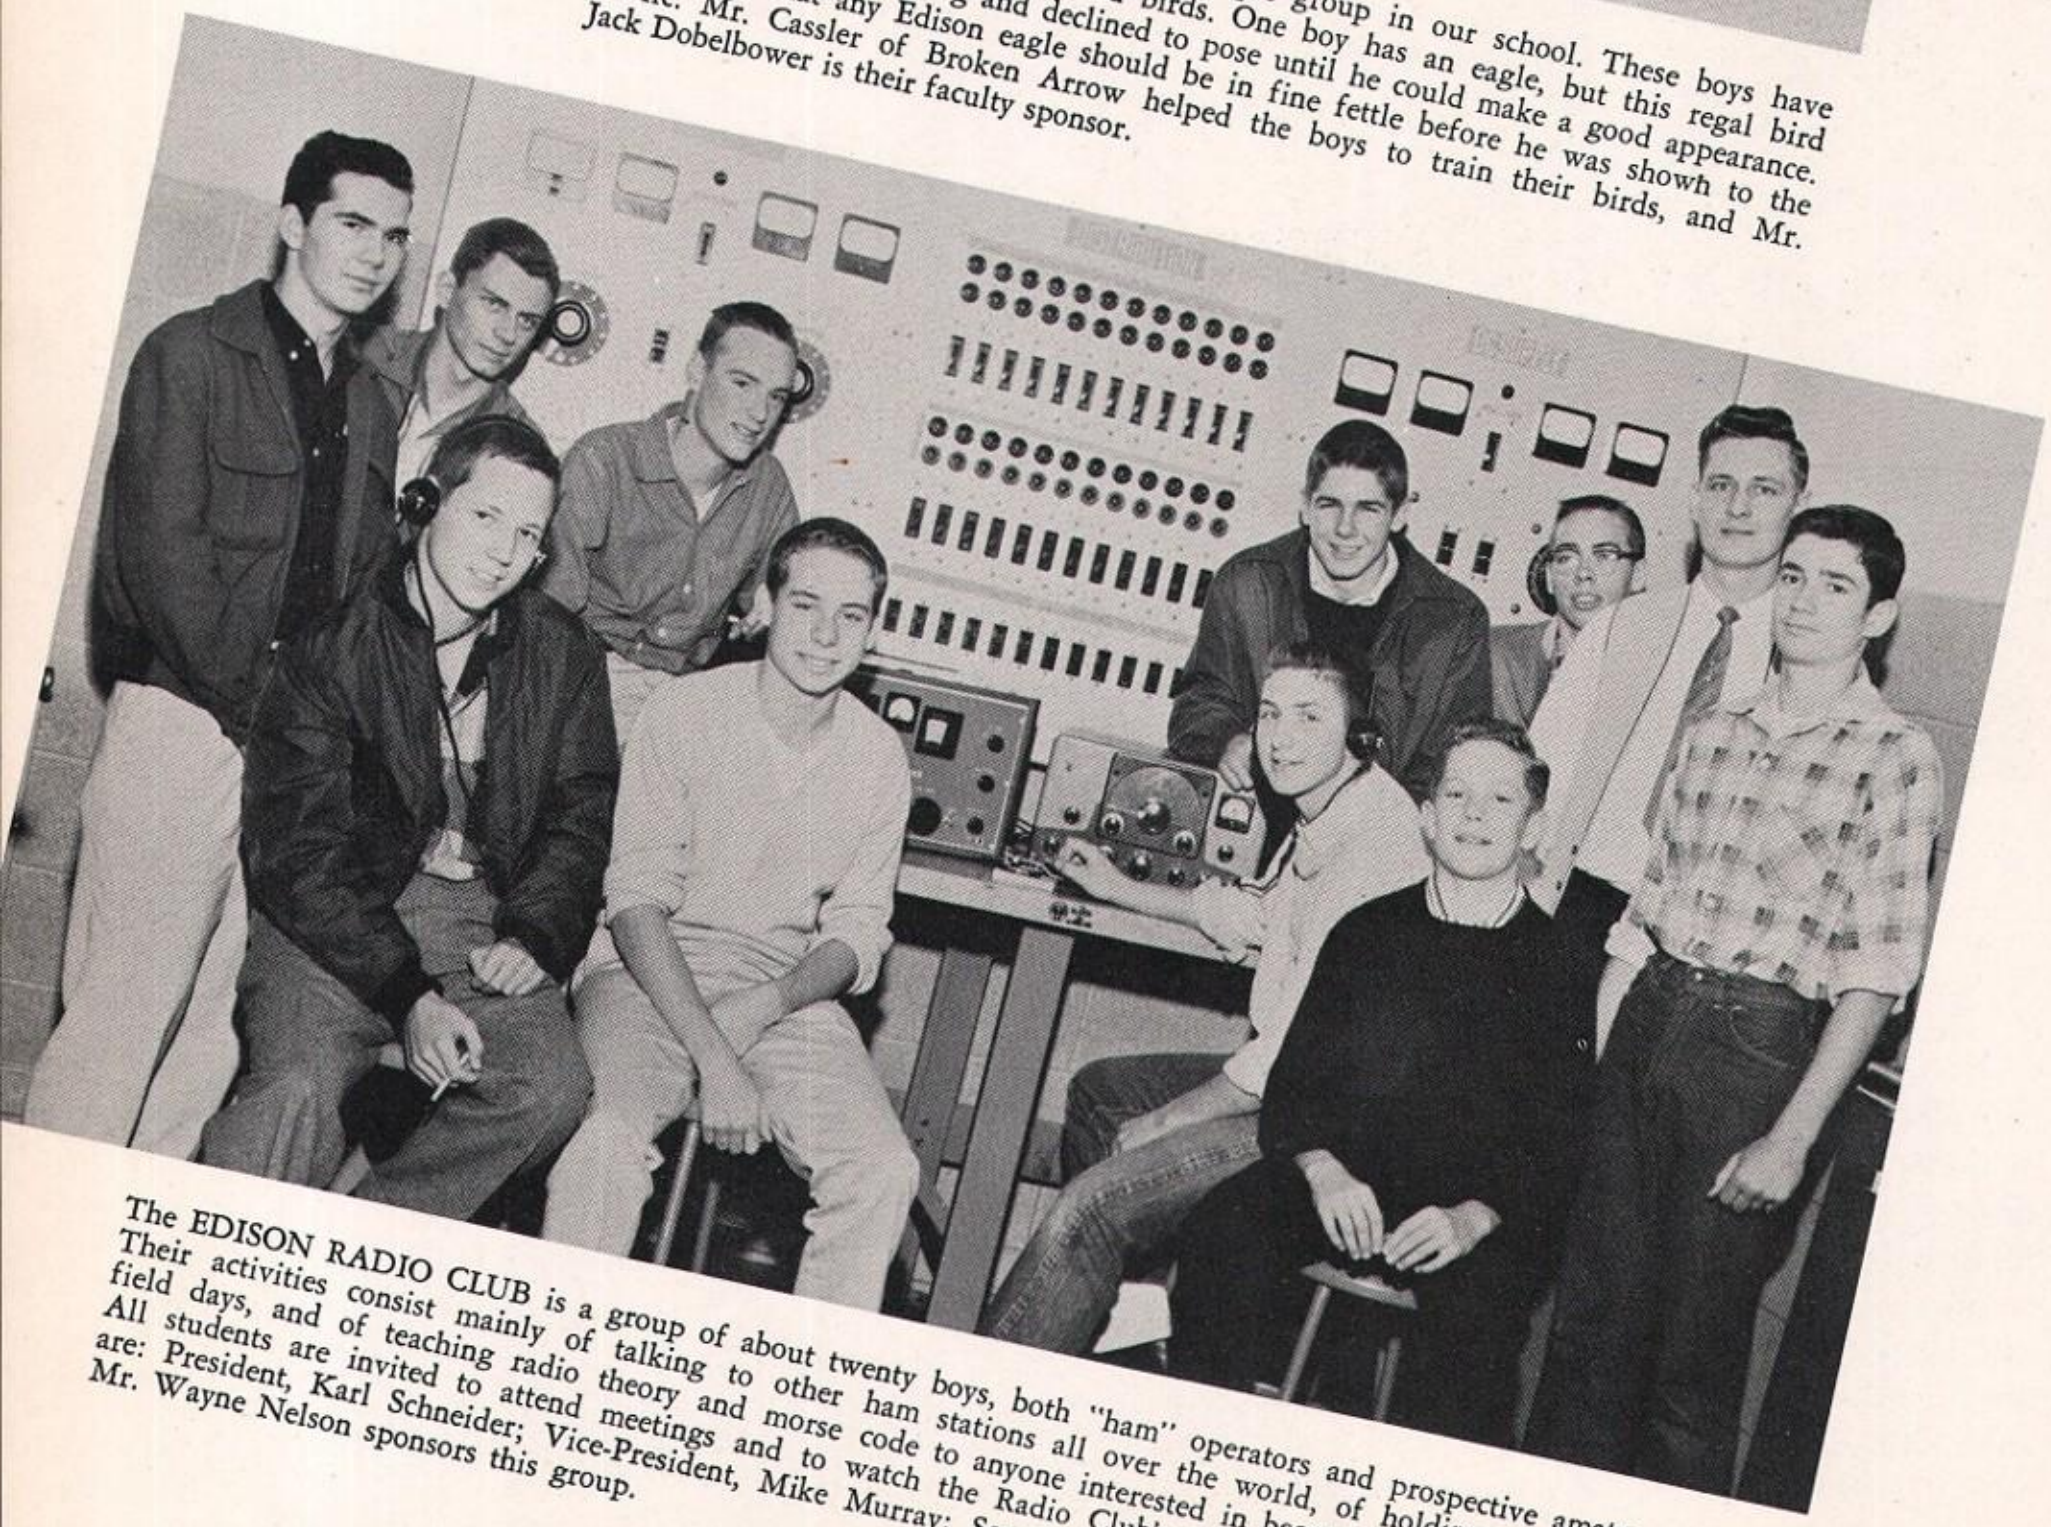
JUNIOR HIGH ASTRONOMY CLUB

The Astronomy Club of Edison provides an opportunity to study astronomical wonders, to learn the place of our planet in the universe, to investigate the use of the telescope, and to learn other phases of astronomy. Interesting discussions are led by various members of the club. All interested Junior and Senior High Students are welcomed to the meetings.

Organizations



The FALCONRY CLUB is a new and unique group in our school. These boys have great fun hunting with these trained birds. One boy has an eagle, but this regal bird was suffering a broken leg and declined to pose until he could make a good appearance. He thought that any Edison eagle should be in fine fettle before he was shown to the public. Mr. Cassler of Broken Arrow helped the boys to train their birds, and Mr. Jack Dobelbower is their faculty sponsor.



The EDISON RADIO CLUB is a group of about twenty boys, both "ham" operators and prospective amateurs. Their activities consist mainly of talking to other ham stations all over the world, of holding auctions and field days, and of teaching radio theory and morse code to anyone interested in becoming a licensed amateur. All students are invited to attend meetings and to watch the Radio Club's station "on the air." The officers are: President, Karl Schneider; Vice-President, Mike Murray; Secretary, Ed Haskell; Treasurer, Carmi Humes. Mr. Wayne Nelson sponsors this group.

HONOR SYSTEM: Three years ago we instituted an honor system which used no names and punished classes very slightly, rather than individuals. This honor system sounded nice, looked good, and was most ineffective; it deterred almost no one from cheating and, in time, was almost entirely disregarded.

Near the end of last year this wishy-washy honor system came under fire and the beginning of this year, a new system was submitted to an all-school vote and passed.

This system asks the student to report by name any one he sees cheating. If two people in the same class, hour, day, etc., report the same person; this constitutes an offense which may be appealed to the Honor Commission jury. The corrective measures that are used on the cheater are considered moderately harsh.

The students performing this important function are — standing: Herb Arst, Tom Gable, Bill Wines, Jerry Goodrich, Bob Bascom, and their sponsor, Mrs. Carolyn Stewart, Seated: Bonnie Creekmore, Jill Kremer, Hilary Henneke, Tom Reyburn, Donna Reyburn, Beverly Crawford, Sue Stewart, Janet Silverman, and Kathie Barham who is not shown.

THESPIANS is the National Dramatic Society devoted to the "Advancement of Dramatic Arts in the Secondary Schools." It is a non-secretive organization to which members are admitted when they complete 100 hours of production work for their school. Edison's new "Troupe-14" originated when Central's troupe presented the charter and installed the officers and new members on Oct. 31, 1958, in our auditorium.

Organizations

USHERETTES was organized in 1958 at the beginning of the school year. Its members consist of senior girls maintaining a G average or above. They, with members of the Key Club, usher at all school functions and aid the school according to request.

LIBERTY BELLES is an organization composed of sixty sophomore, junior, and senior girls. They march with the band in parades, and this year they have presented several unique routines at basketball games. Three senior captains and two junior captains are selected every year to lead this colorful and energetic group. The club operates on a point system, offering a service bar to the deserving girls at the end of the year.

Organizations

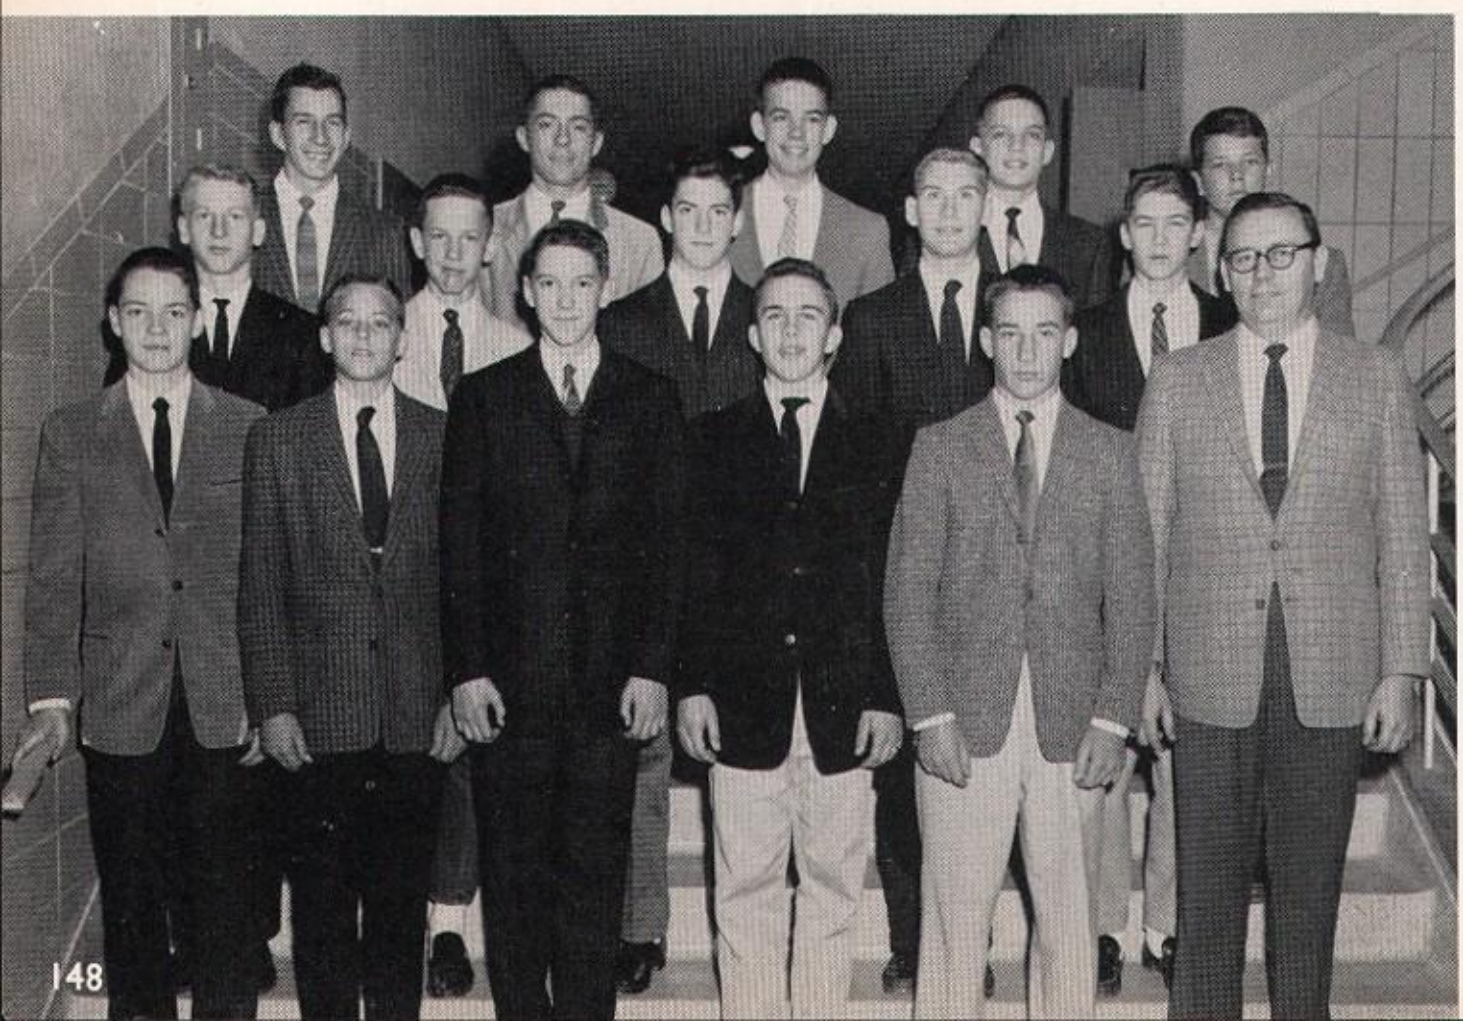
MU ALPHA THETA is a national high and junior College mathematics society which has over 165 chapters throughout the United States. The purpose of the organization is to encourage capable students in their pursuit of mathematics through individual reading and research. Edison joined Mu Alpha Theta on January 10, 1958, with 17 charter members. That number increased during the year to 30 members. A student must have had at least two years of mathematics and maintain an overall average of "G."

The FUTURE NURSES CLUB has attracted many of our outstanding girls. Mrs. LeMaster, our school nurse, gives her time to direct these girls in the study of their chosen profession.

The MEDICAL CLUB was formed with the purpose of gaining knowledge and understanding of the Medical Service through association with speakers and through field trips. This group looks to Mr. D. O. Hoopert for guidance.

Organizations

The purposes of FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA are to interest students in becoming teachers, to explore the teaching field, including the opportunities and the many areas of the teaching profession, to develop the beginnings of professional attitudes, to bring to pupils greater understanding of the value of education in American society, and to render service to the school and the community by being teachers. The sponsor of the Charles C. Mason Club is Mrs. Chloe Lane. The presiding officers are Ellen Stafford, president; Jackie McGinnis, vice-president; Glenda Kuhnemund, recording secretary; Judy McPherson, corresponding secretary; and Margaret Boydston, treasurer.



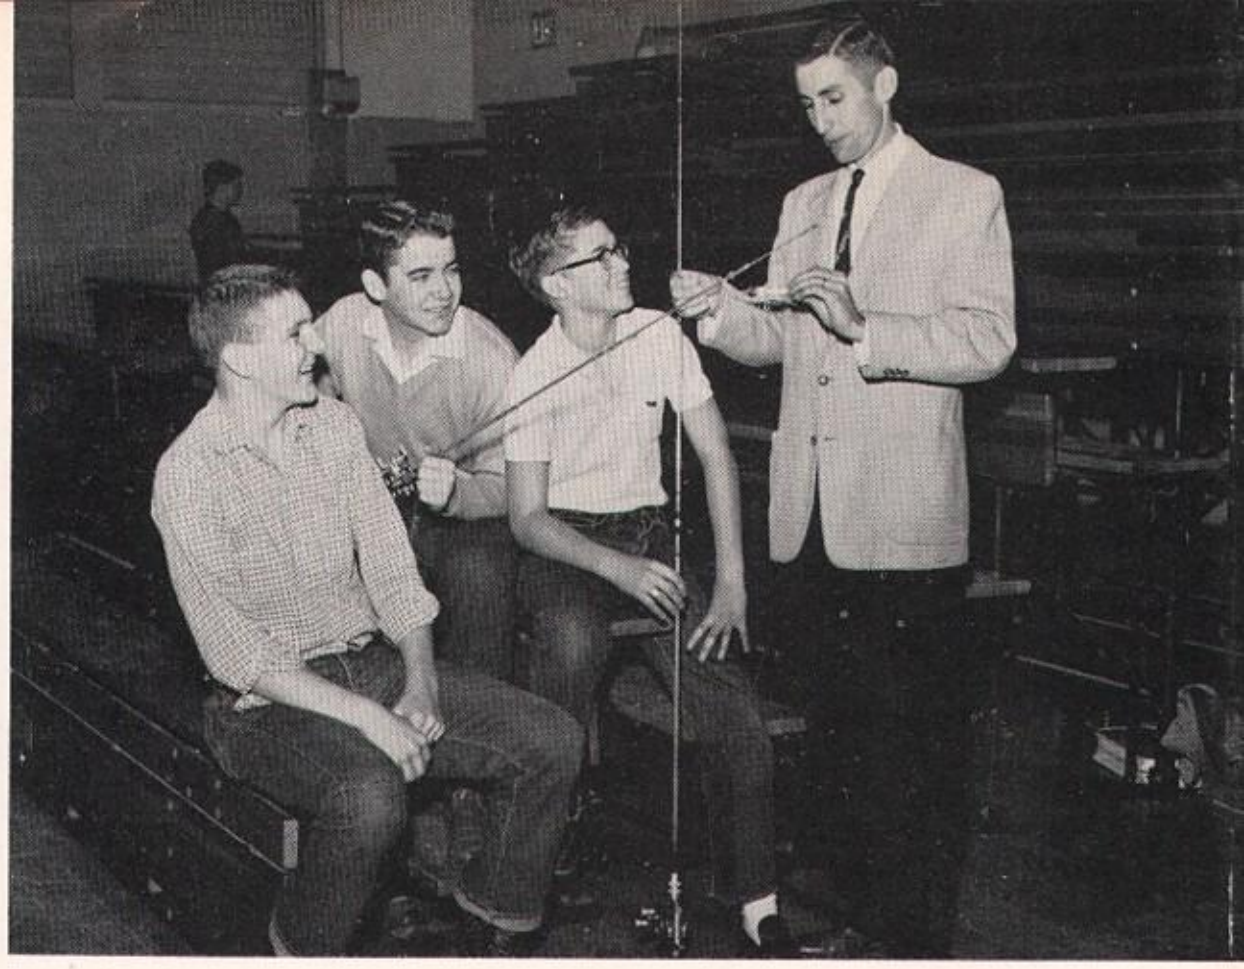
The JUNIOR HIGH K-CLUB is a branch of the senior high Key Club. The officers of the club are Jim Graham, president; Jim Shanor, vice-president; Mike Schlosser, secretary; and Bill Buchanan, treasurer. The sponsor of the K-Club is Mr. Leslie Marks.

Just a few of the many projects taken up by the club were the clean-up drive at the first of the year, a clothes drive for the needy, and the faculty-K Club basketball game.

The CHESS CLUB, sponsored by Mr. Poulter, have some lively sessions. Three boys selected a chess team after a tournament, and this team enjoyed a successful year of competition with other schools.

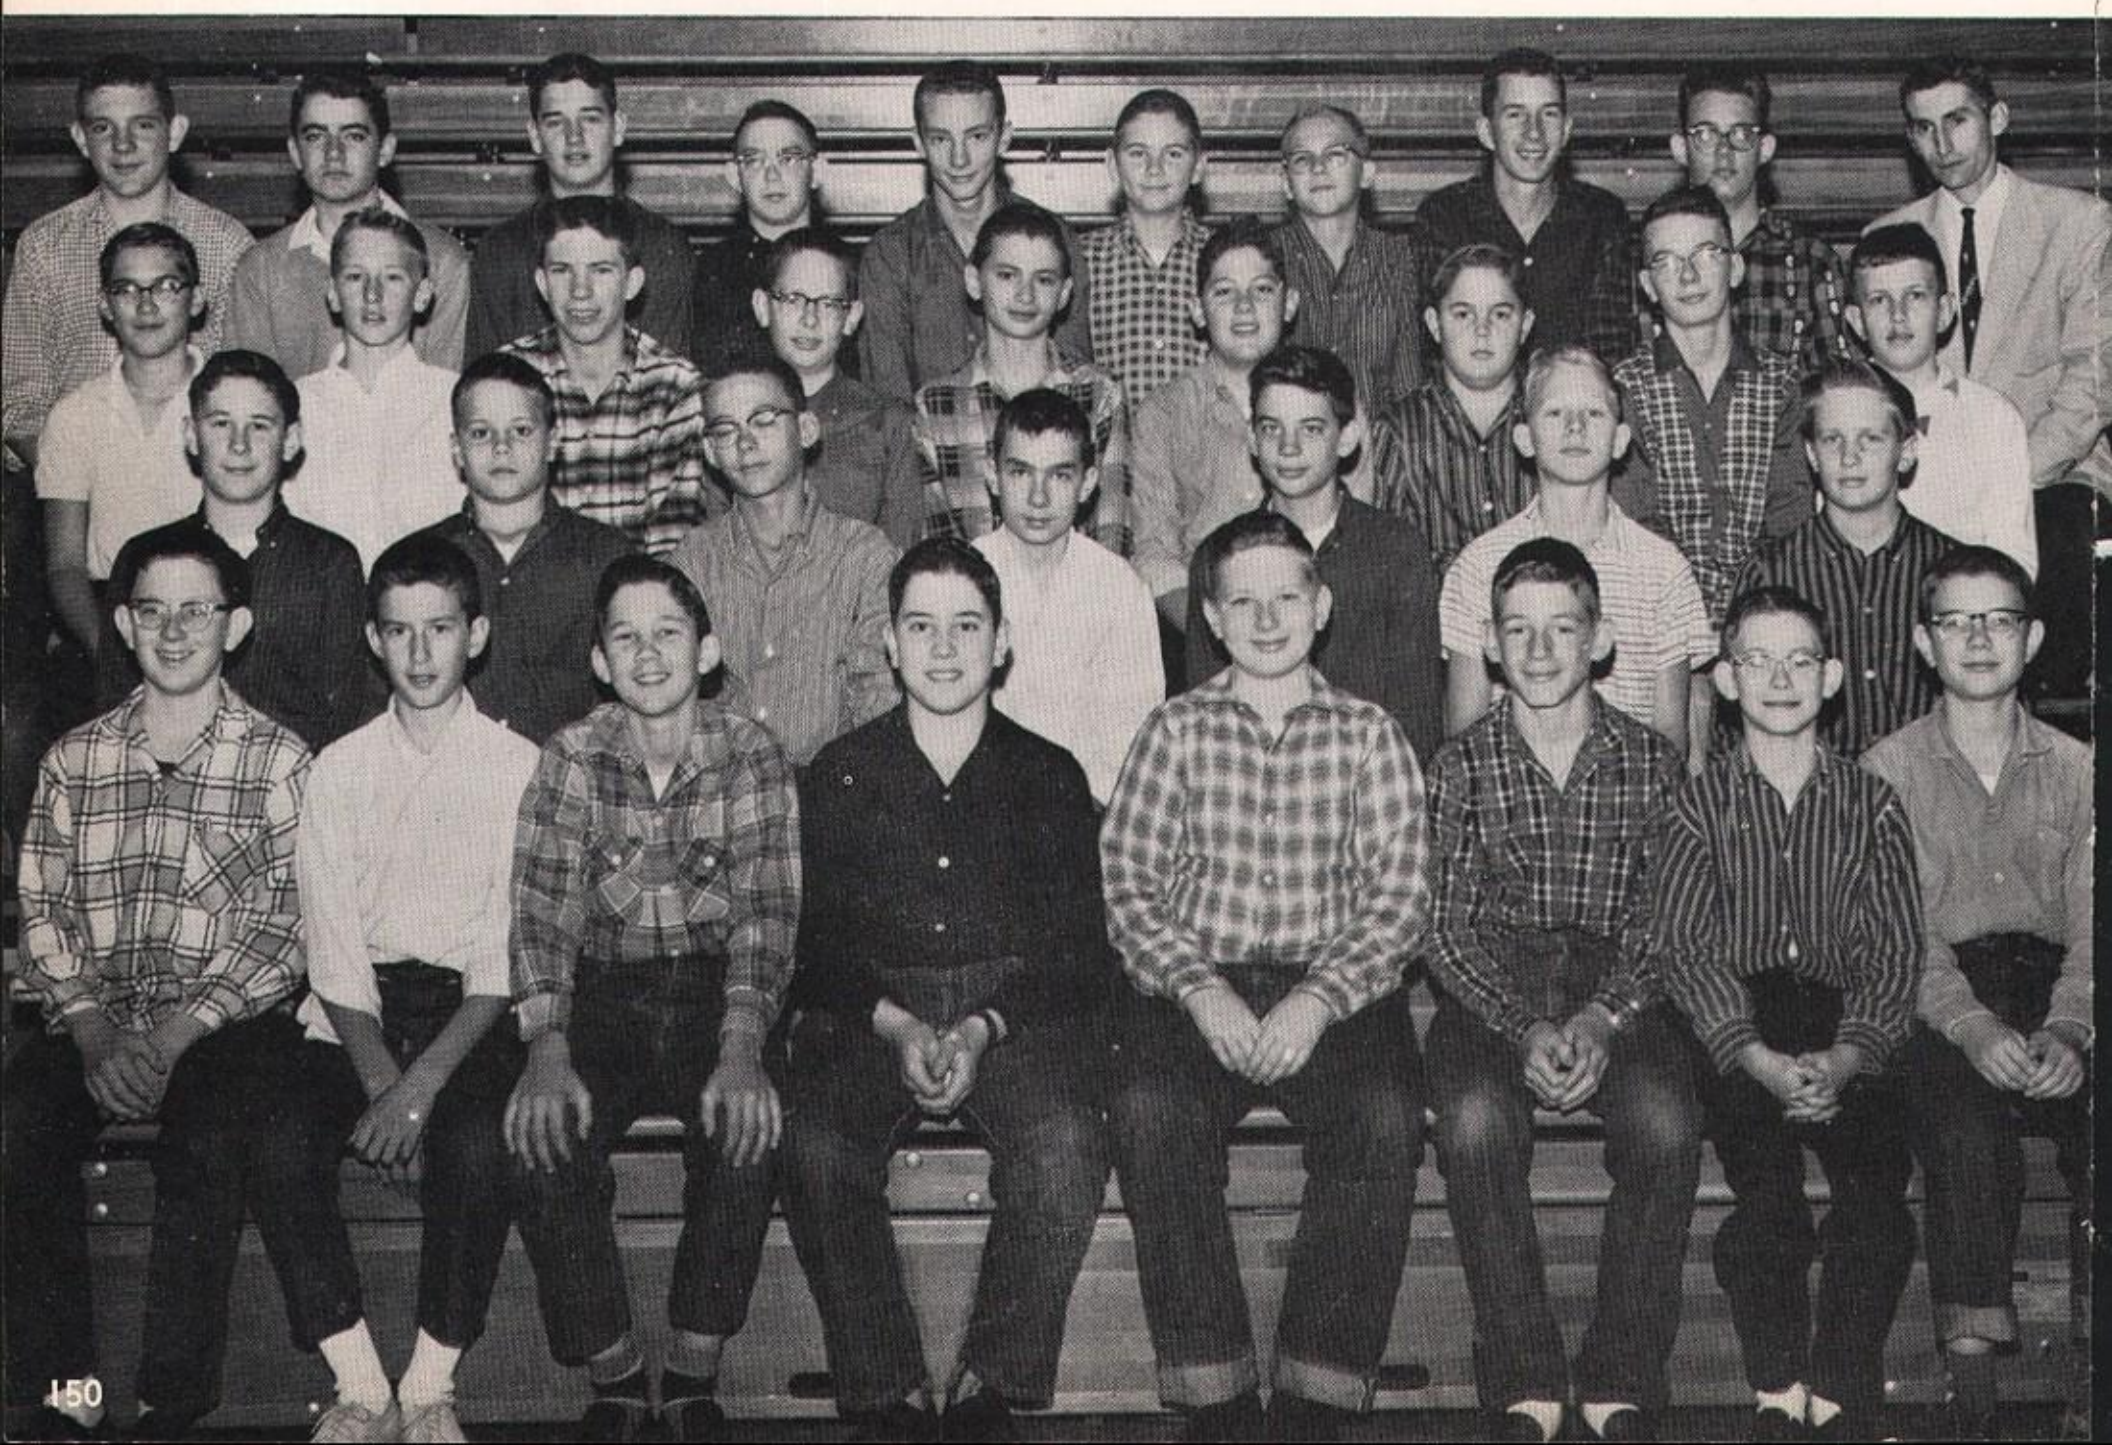
The JUNIOR HIGH SQUARE DANCE CLUB has been one of the most enjoyable organizations of the school. Students have found this an excellent way to get acquainted and have loads of fun.

Organizations



Officers of the Field & Stream Club are David Henley, President; Mike Hendrickson, Vice-President; Jim Morrison, Secretary-Treasurer; and Neil Barker, Sponsor.

The FIELD & STREAM CLUB is the newest organization at Edison. The club is composed of seventh, eighth, and ninth graders who are interested in the outdoors, many prominent sportsmen have been guests at their meetings.



Officers of Allied Youth are Happy Fry, President; Pat Cahill, Vice-President; Sandra Stiles, Recording Secretary; Rusty Brunkow, Corresponding Secretary; and Charles Kothe, Treasurer. Sponsors of the club are Mrs. Blanche Cloiner, Mr. Engel Grow, and Mrs. Sue Johnson.

ALLIED YOUTH is a group of students who are interested in the study of social problems of modern youth. Their ideal is " . . . to seek the truth concerning beverage alcohol and the best way of life in relation to this problem."

Organizations

The TALONS help to create and promote school spirit. During meetings the cheerleaders teach us new yells, and business and projects are discussed. The Talons are composed of a pep council, a pep squad, an honor guard, and eight cheerleaders. Our cheerleaders placed first in a 7-state clinic at Oklahoma University.

Music

The CONCERT BAND is a group of talented youngsters which has had a busy schedule this year. Concerts and other programs are the order of the days as the winter and spring seasons roll around. Class time is spent preparing for these appearances and the final product is always a professional-type performance which is enjoyed by the entire audience. Leading the band this year were C. F. McGee, president, Bill Clark, vice-president, and Lee Clark, secretary-treasurer.

Concert

Richard Cox is the capable director of this busy organization and does much to help the students in their search for musical understanding.

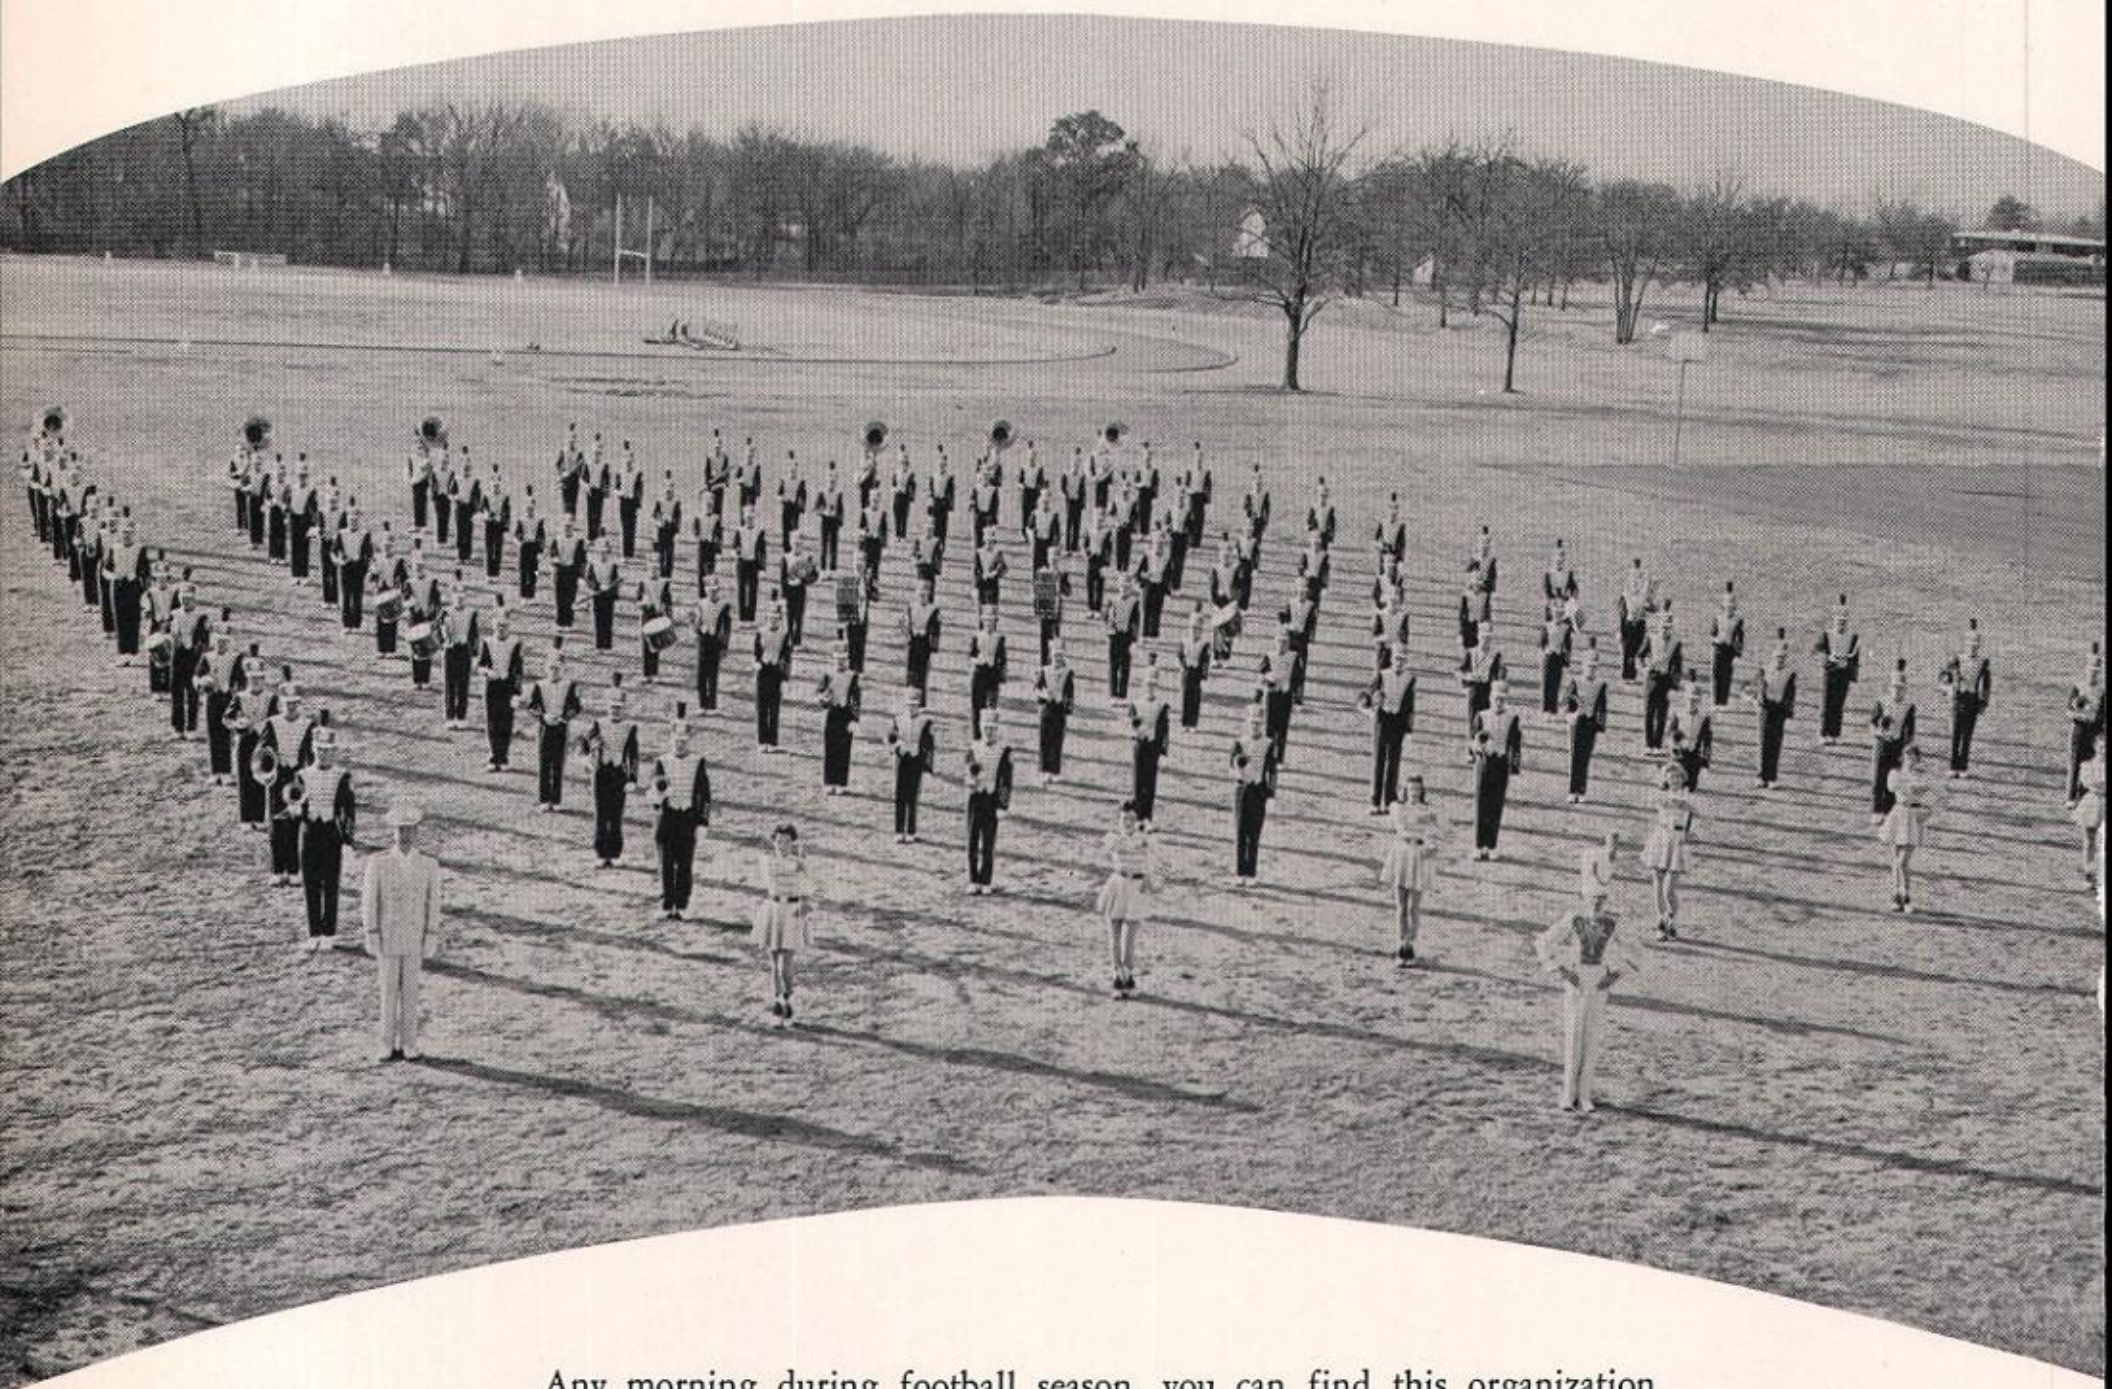
The Marching Band



Any morning during football season, you can find this organization, THE MARCHING BAND, on the field behind Edison preparing their intricate and colorful halftime shows. Many long hours of work are put into the preparation of these shows and the finished product is always a delightful addition to our exciting gridiron battles. Leading the band this year were Don Wagner, drum major; Wayne Rice, assistant drum major; head majorette, Sharon Fletcher; and majorettes, Connie Smith,- Barbara Smith, Sue Stewart, Joan Warren, and Kathy Johnson. Richard Cox is director.

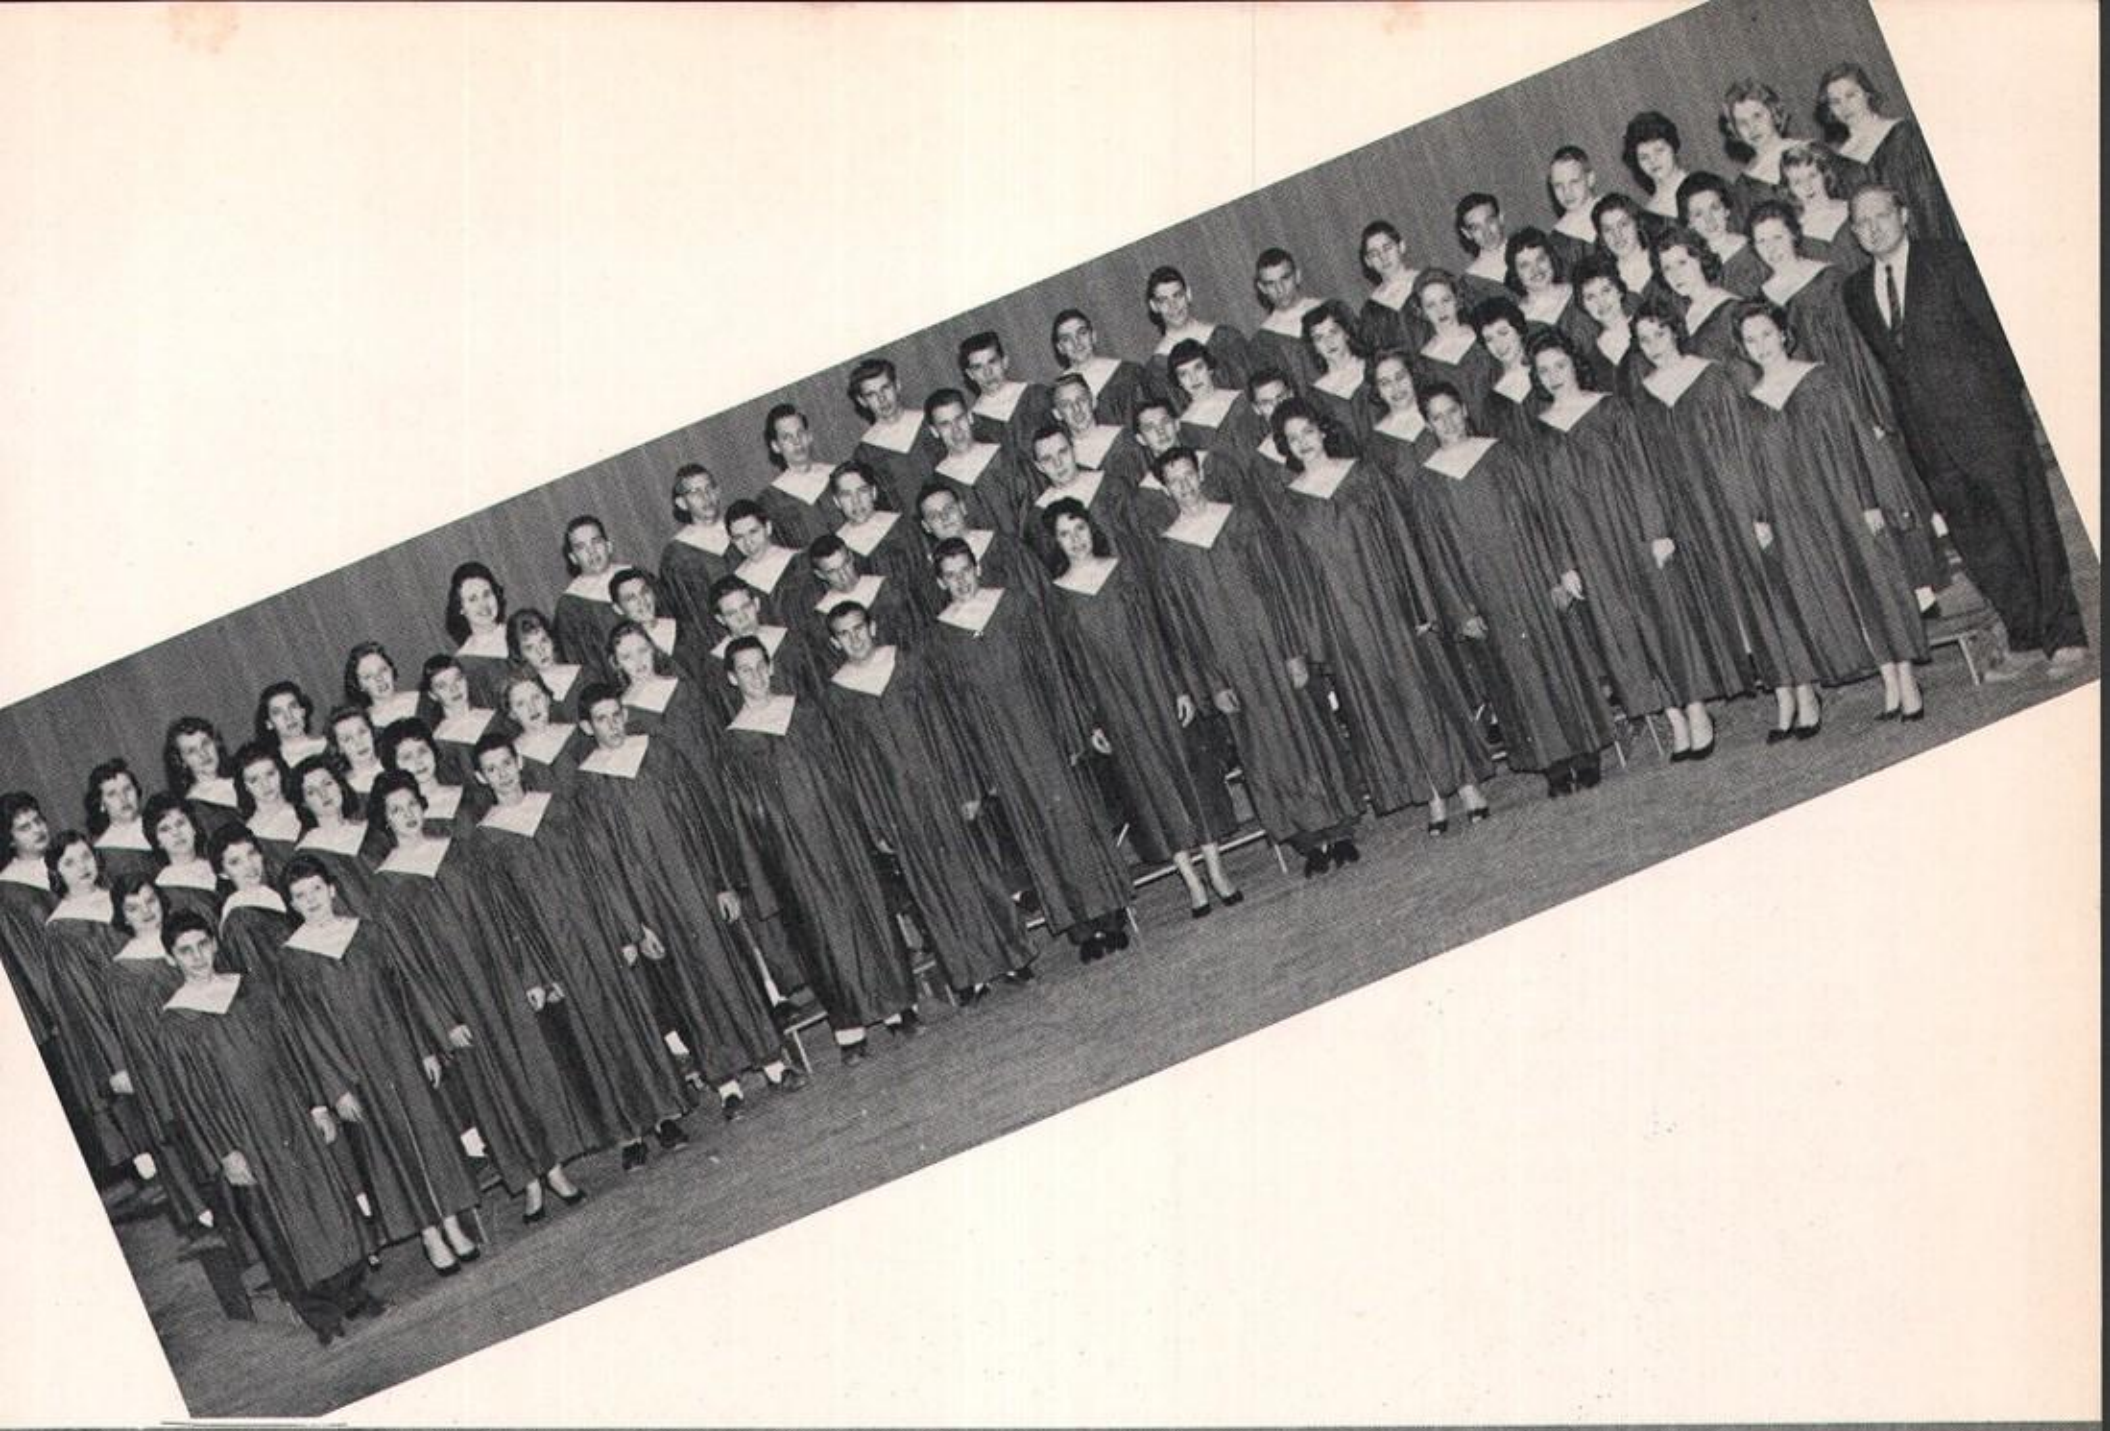
The Swing Band

Another active, extracurricular group at Edison is the SWING BAND. Throughout the year this seventeen-man band appears in assemblies and at dances to entertain the music-loving Edisonites. Directed by Richard Cox, this group is due many laurels for the fine entertainment provided all year long.

Mixed Chorus and Orchestra

The MIXED CHORUS is a choral group that consists of sophomore, junior, and senior boys and girls. They appear in assemblies and choral concerts, and the beautiful way they handle music is a delight to all audiences. Some members of the mixed chorus make up the AMEN CHORUS which adds a spiritual meaning to the opening exercises of all assemblies.

The ORCHESTRA is another of the many talent-filled music groups at Edison. Beautiful music, ranging from classical to Broadway show scores, are found in their productions. Their appearances range from concerts to special assemblies such as the coronation of Miss Edison. The year is climaxed by their appearance at commencement exercises.



Senior High Girls' Glee Club

The SENIOR HIGH GIRLS' GLEE CLUB present many varied programs during the school year ranging from Christmas and other assemblies to special choral concerts. The talent in their ranks contributes great quantities of musical enjoyment to Edisonites.

Senior High Boys' Glee Club

With the starting of this school year, there arose a need for a SENIOR HIGH BOYS' GLEE CLUB. Under the expert direction of Mr. Ronald Shirey, the long awaited group was finally formed. Their first appearance was at the Thanksgiving assembly where they presented "Almighty God of Our Fathers" and were warmly received. The glee club may be new, but it offers one of the finest male vocal groups for a high school in Tulsa.

Coach Ralph Parker (left) has in two short years built a football squad that ranks as one of the best in the state. The Eagles won the Round Robin this year and came through with an 8 won and 2 lost.

Mr. F. A. Dry was an able assistant. His line coaching helped our boys to hold against teams that outweighed them by several pounds.

Edison's mighty eleven chalked up another victorious year with 8 wins and 2 losses. Piloting the Eagles to victory were these power-packed twenty-two. The eleven seniors who are leaving to fly toward higher accomplishments are: Ronnie Weiszmann, Lindsay Perkins, Tom Webb, Chuck Miller, Mark Whitaker, Johnny Turner, Jim Seibold, Max Alumbaugh, Kenny White, Tom Crawford, and Nickie Gay. The remaining eleven who will return next year to raise the victory flag over Edison's gridiron still higher are: Ed Schermerhorn, Ted Larkin, Tom Dupree, Tom Mach, Dennis Hardin, Jim Schultz, Al Deaton, Gary Westhoff, Jerry Prather, Geren Cooper, and Phil Fruge.

"B" Football Team

The spirited "B" squad has shown signs of carrying out the tradition of being one of the top ranked teams in Tulsa. Comprised mostly of sophomores, these boys have had the necessary background that it takes to form an organization which is capable of competing for all-city, all-state and all-American football honors. We hope that the future "B" squads will represent our school with the fire and determination that has been shown by their predecessors.

Basketball "B" Team

The "B" Basketball Team is comprised of a group of sophomore boys, who have not had quite enough experience to be "A" Team members. In the past year they have had a good record and by their junior and senior years we expect to hear great things from these yearlings. Their coach is Mr. Bill Grove.

WRESTLING TEAM

The Wrestling Eagles Complete Their Finest Year

The Edison Wrestling Eagles have at last become full feathered, mature wrestling Eagles. The Wrestling Eagles experienced their finest year in the history of the school, with a won and lost record of eight and three in dual-meet competition. They also felt slightly jilted, although happy, as they served as "the bridesmaid twice and never the bride" in finishing second in both the Bristow and Edison Invitational Tournaments. Christmas was wonderful as the Edison wrestlers scored their first dual-meet win in history over the Central Braves on December 9, with Dennis Dutch and Tom Webb padding the win by pinning their opponents. The final score was Edison 24, Central 15. Then came the Bristow Tournament with Edison finishing second and having four second place winners in Dennis Dutch, Happy Fry, Walt Matteson, and Tom Webb.

The New Year brought high hopes, but we received a jolt as the Eagles suffered two quick defeats within an eight-day period. On January 6, the Central Braves avenged their earlier loss and nosed out the Eagles 19-15; and then on January 14, the defending State Champions, the Rogers Ropers, edged the Eagles 19-16.

The big one in our gym was the Edison Invitational Tournament and the Wrestling Eagles won their first trophy, the runner-up trophy, as nine Eagles picked up place medals to make it a real team effort. Dennis Dutch and Happy Fry won first place and gold medals to pace the team.

The regional was next and it was tough! With sixteen teams entered and the cream of the state wrestlers entered in this regional, including the three defending state champions, we were extremely proud to finish fourth in the tournament and qualify four wrestlers for the state tournament at Perry. The four wrestlers who qualified included three seniors and one junior. B. Jack Jackson qualified at 115 lbs., finishing third in the regional; Happy Fry, a junior, finished first at 148 lbs.; Walt Matteson finished second in the 168 lb. class; and Tom Webb finished third in the heavyweight.

Miss Sally Bauer was elected Wrestling Queen for the 1958-1959 season. Her attendants were Mary Ann Bell and Judy Marlow.

State Champions

Our illustrious swimmers have done it again. Besides winning all their meets, they swam away (literally) with the city championship; and as the book goes to press, they leave for Oklahoma City where they are heavily favored to repeat their State Championship. Ably coached by Marvin Ross for the fourth year, they have built an impressive record in the past and promise to continue their fine work in the future. Congratulations to the Edison mermen, champions in and out of the water.

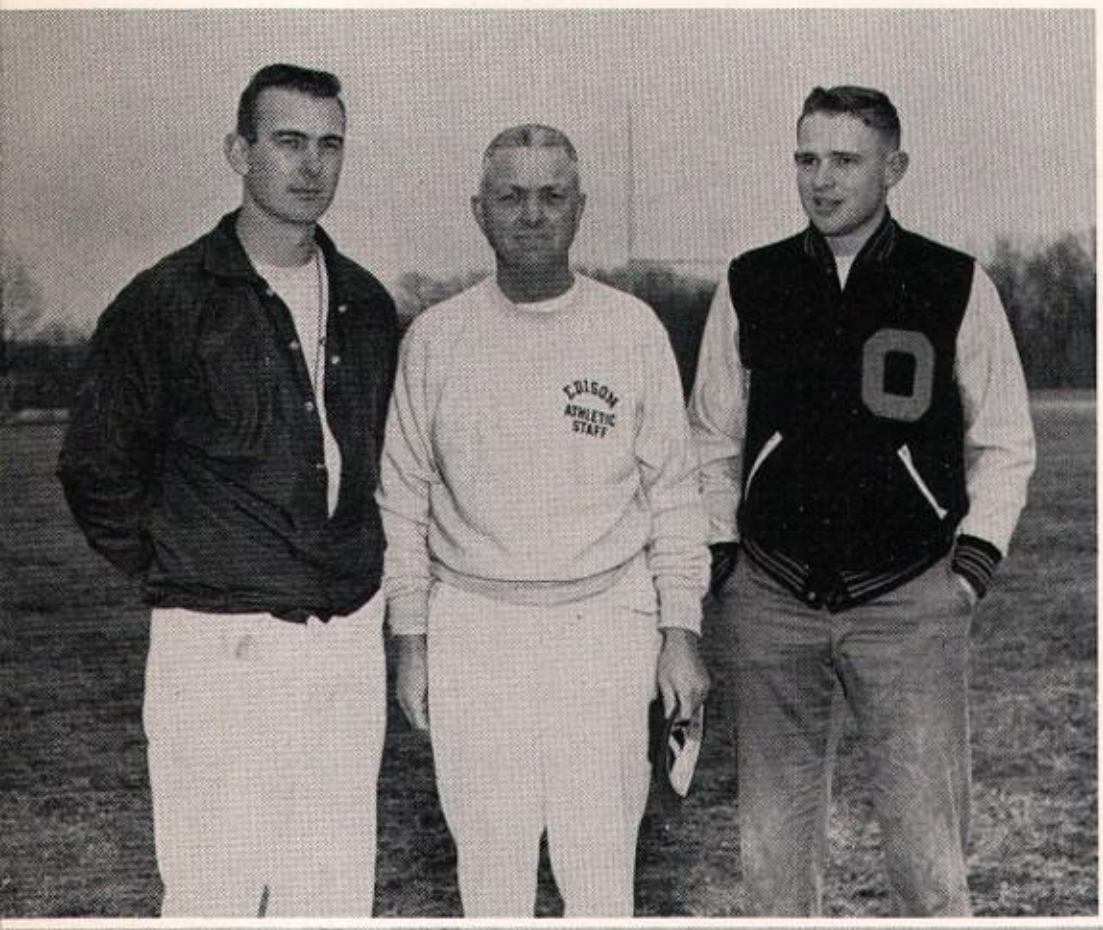
Cross Country

Edison Cross Country team won the all-city championship under the able coaching of Mr. Walter Barham and Mr. Hugh Pierce. The team placed first in the O.B.U. and Edison Invitational Tournaments and second in the Rogers Invitational Tournament. After a brilliant season, they finished second in the state meet. At the state meet Dave Kirkman, pictured at the right, and Jerry Anderson finished second and third respectively out of a field of one hundred runners.

Track Team



The Edison Track Team, coached very capably by Mr. F. A. Dry, Mr. Walter Barham, and Mr. H. J. Green, gained third in the state track meet. After a good season last year with many records broken, the team looked ahead optimistically to this year's season. The following boys returned after placing in the state meet: Jerry Anderson, Joel Douglas, John Turner, Tom Webb, and Dave Kirkman.

Conference Champs

Jim Ingram, Charlie Kothe, and David Livingston make up Edison's exceptional Golf Team that won the Oklahoma Six Conference.

Charlie Kothe, team captain, was the Oklahoma Six Conference medalist.

Our baseball team, with 11 wins and 7 losses last year, is another of the outstanding sports groups at Edison. In their second year of play, they did a fine job of promoting Edison through sports, and in the best game of the year, beat the State Champion Webster Warriors, 1-0. Led by Ken White on the mound and Tom Deupree in the batter's box, the team looked forward at press time to this spring and another outstanding season.

Activities

Kay Henderson, Dixie James, Bob Bascom, and Larry Wilson are determined to meet that deadline.

Yearbook Staff

Being chosen editor of the Torch all three of my high school years is one of the greatest honors I have received.

The staff and I have felt tremendously rewarded for our work and planning when the finished books have brought such pleasure to so many.

The Torch would never be possible without the sponsor and officers. They are: Jo Jeanne Rose, advertising manager; Linda Lawrence, assistant editor; Miss Berna Dean Morrow, sponsor; Sarah Johnson, assistant editor.

Lee Clark, Marcia Meredith, and Sid Moyers have put many hours into the yearbook. One of the activities the staff worked on was planning and building the swimming queen's throne, which we all had fun making.

Bob Bascom and Sid Moyers were the photographers who gave us such excellent coverage of school activities.

Art Staff

Pat Corry created a great deal of excitement in the yearbook class when she brought in her very effective designs for the division pages.

The staff went into huddles with the art director, Mrs. Sue Johnson; and always came out loaded with ideas.

Activities

Advertising Board

The JUNIOR HIGH ADVERTISING BOARD, above and left, was represented by these students. Each homeroom had a representative to promote interest and participation in our school activities.

The SENIOR HIGH ADVERTISING BOARD is a group of homeroom representatives who have the distinction of going out to the various classes, selling and promoting various activities and school functions to the students. They are represented by these few members who were available for the picture.

School Life

These industrious and energetic School Life Staffers have given a complete and outstanding coverage of the varied life of a great school.

Miss Dolores Johns, sponsor; Barbara Gillette, editor; and Anne Lewis, co-editor; are working on pages for the paper so that Edison might be well represented in Tulsa school news.

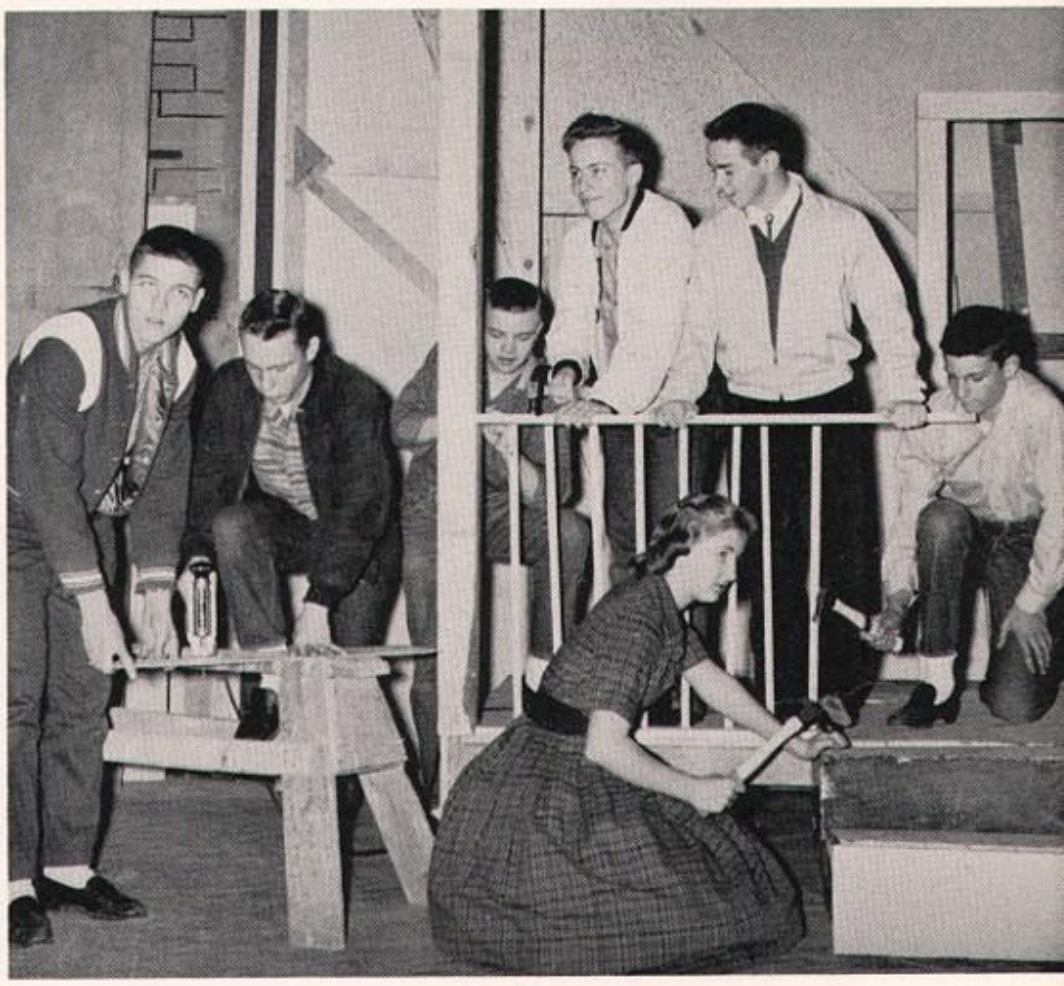
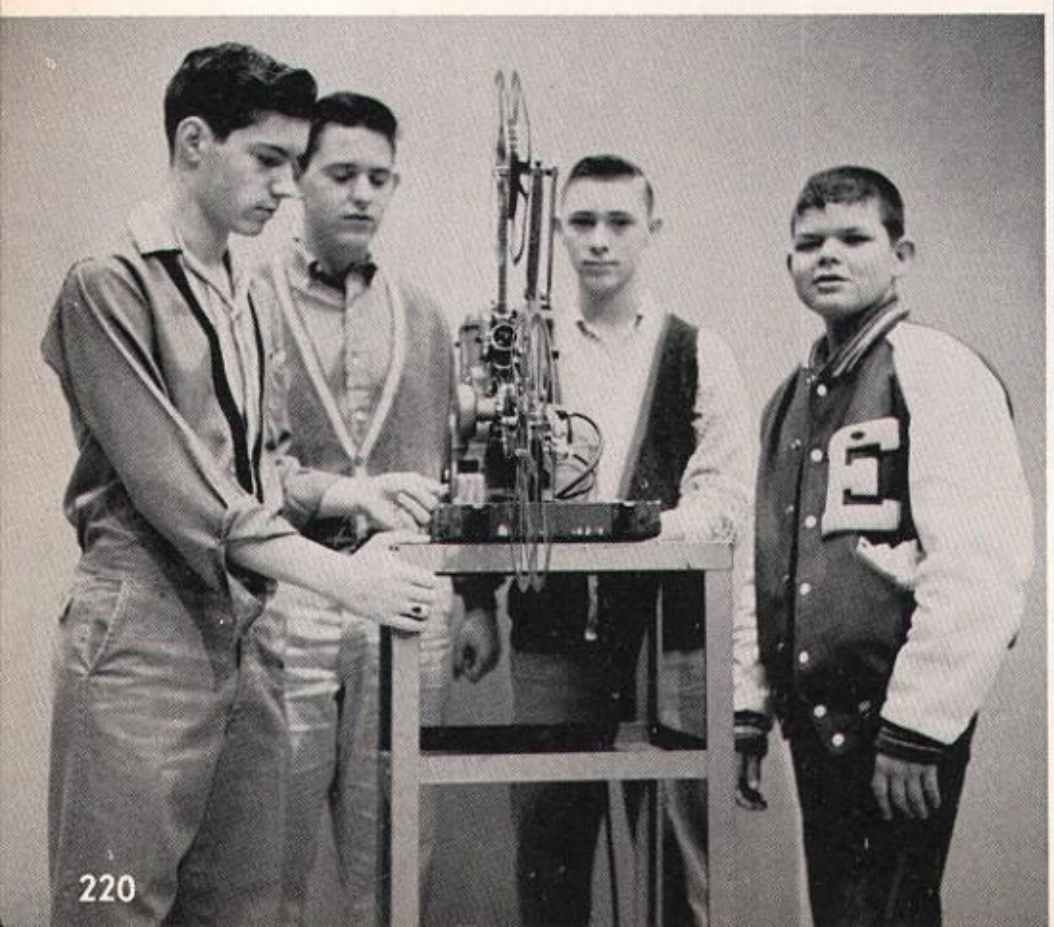
Activities

Mr. Crowell, who is in charge of Stage Craft, and Morgan Gurthet, stage manager, are looking over plans of sets for the sophomore play. Jerry Hull, the other stage manager is not shown.

Tom Poss, Wesley Bulger, Tim Hayes, Craig Masters, Dural Weedon, Sanford Hall and John Oliver are some of the boys who work hard to make possible the excellent lighting and scenery for productions on our stage.

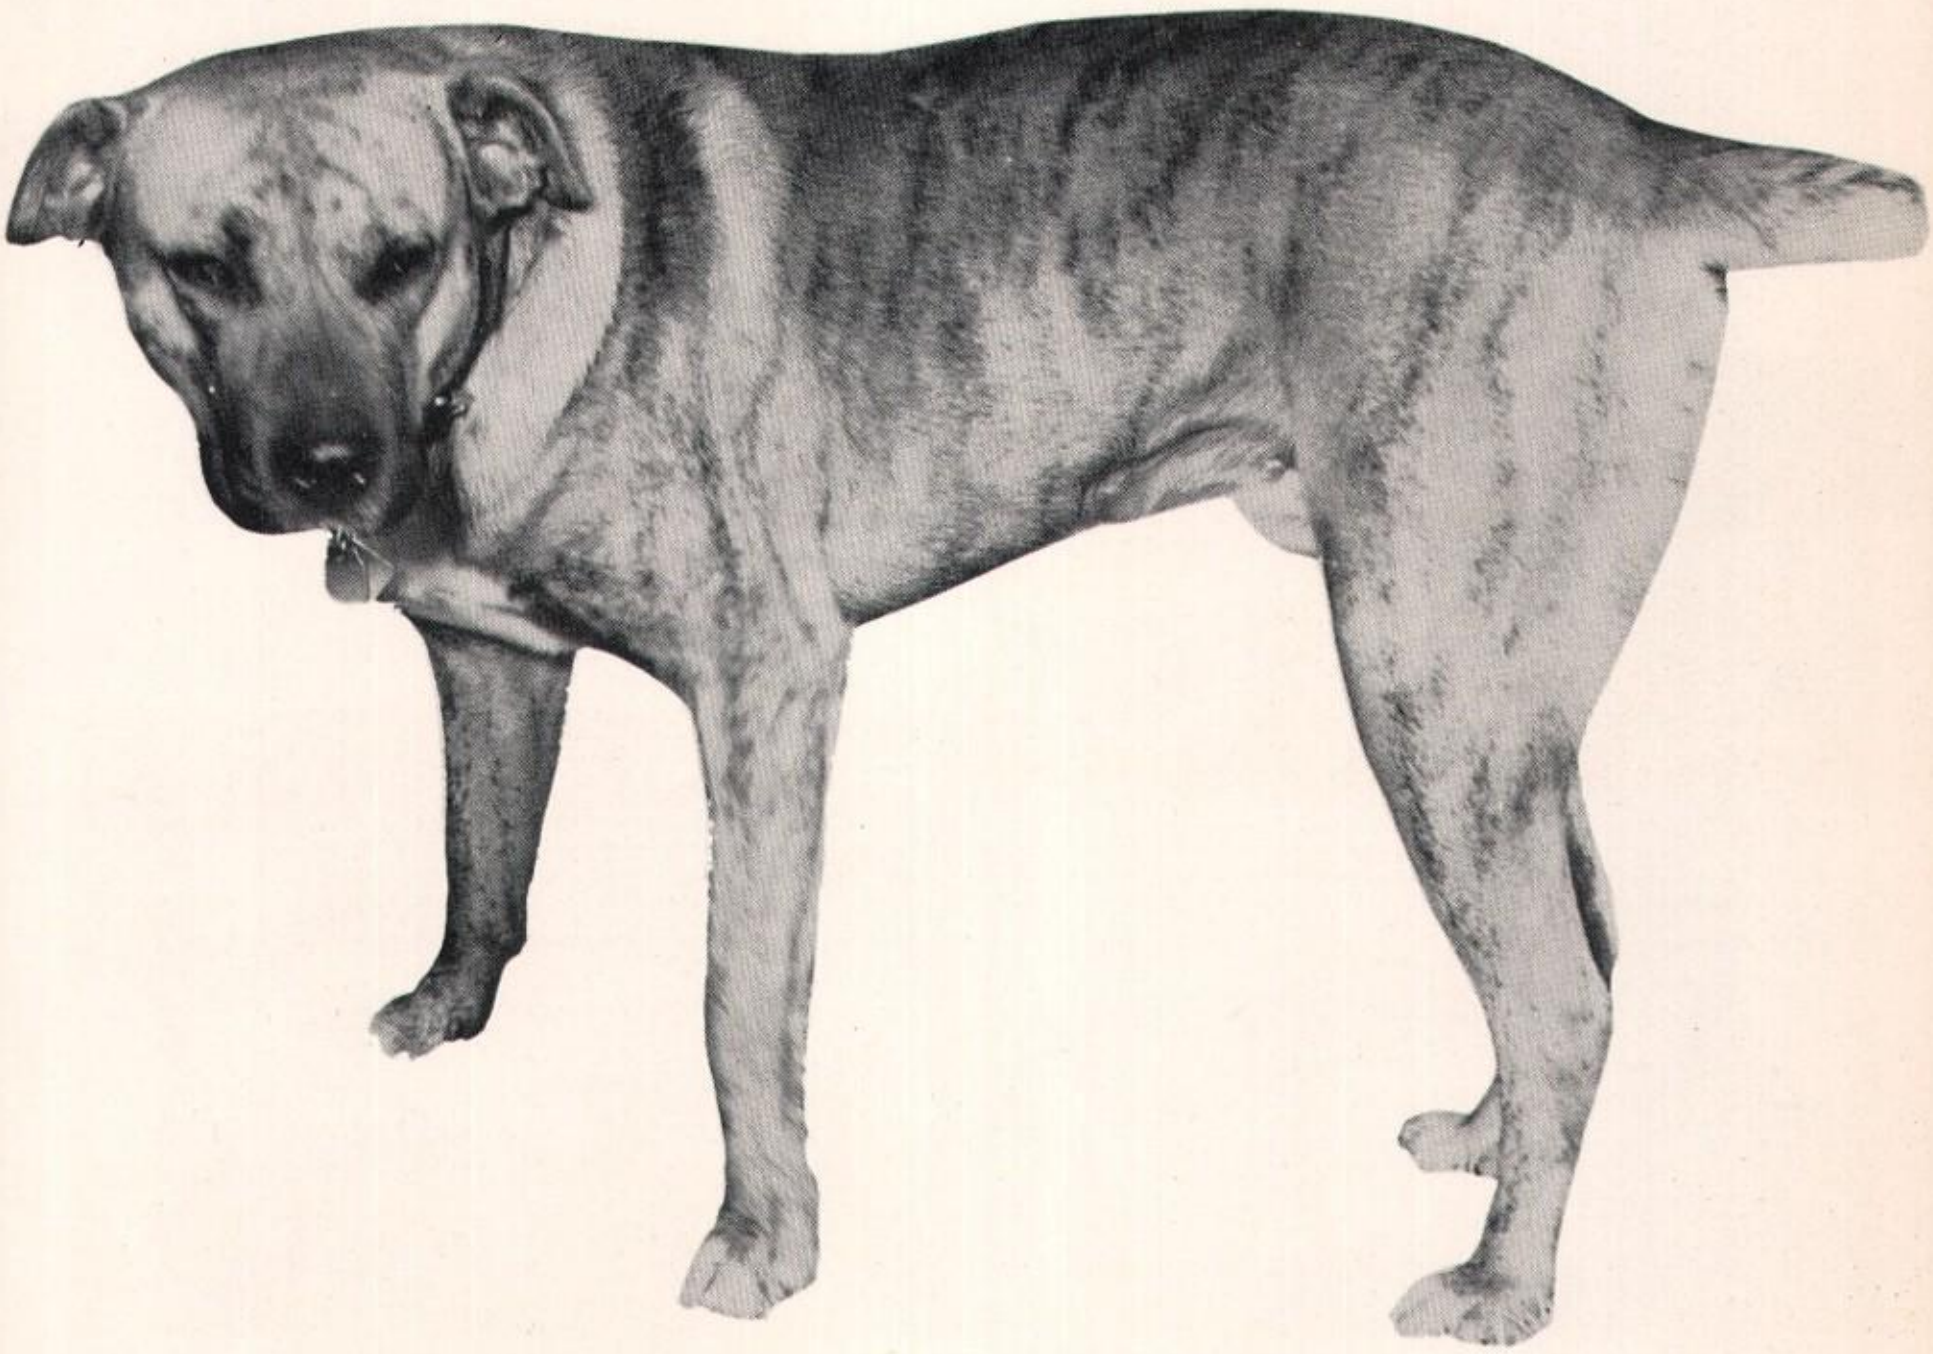


Stage Craft class keeps every one of its members busy all year. Shown constructing a porch are: Robert McGinniss, John Sober, Roger Hines, Tim Spore, Terri Blanchard and David Gurthet.



Many classes are indebted to the services of the audio visual boys . . . Rober Borden, Sanford Hall, Larry Penn and Richard Frommie.

Top Dog on the Campus

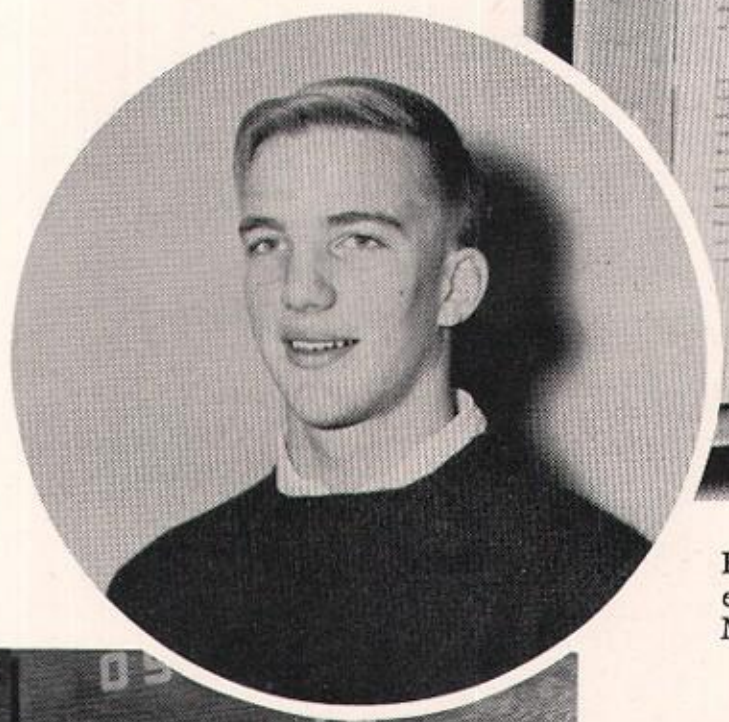


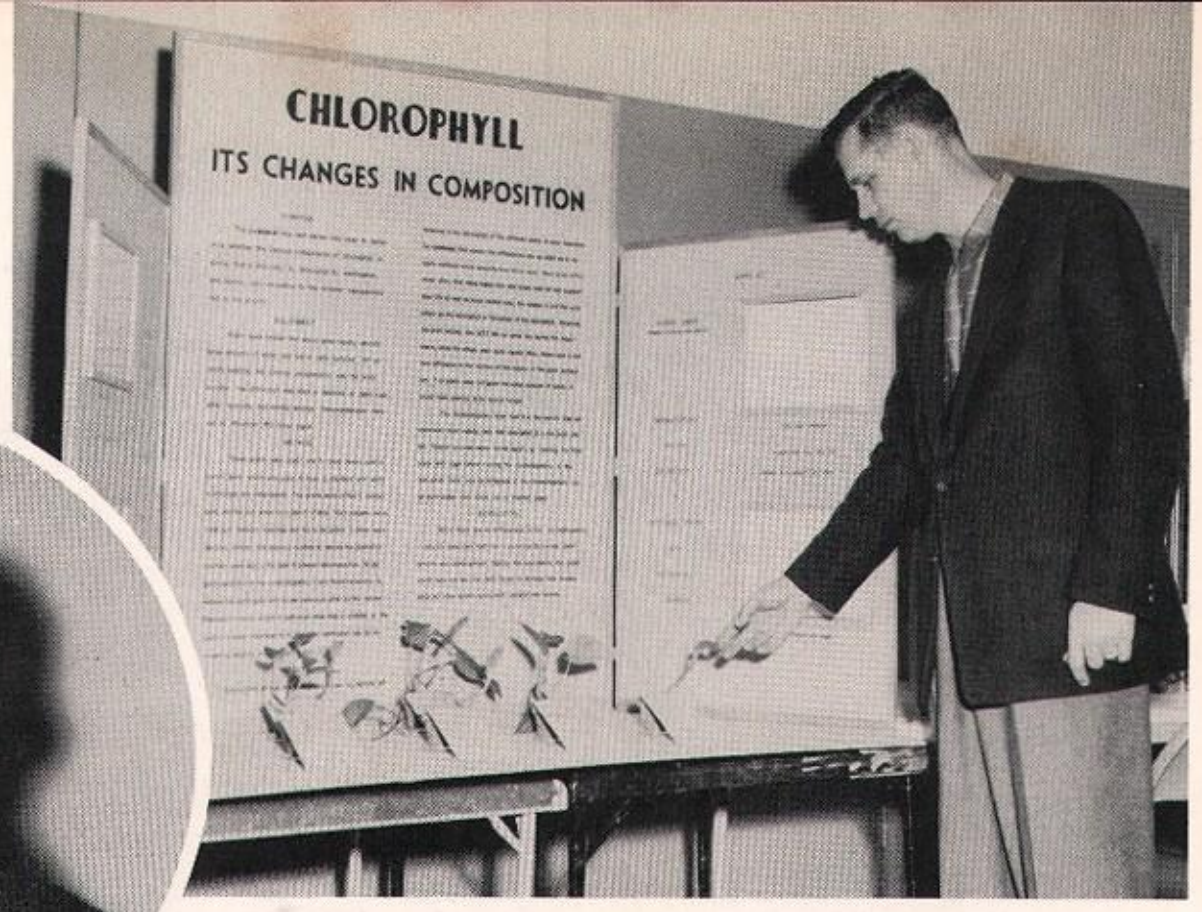
Pancho (Old Yeller) has an enviable attendance record at Edison. Weather does not prevent his faithful attendance to his self-assumed duties. Having appeared on our stage on several important occasions, he will soon qualify for Thespians.

No wonder Dr. Alexander is so fond of our canine friend. His daily inspection tour includes junior and senior high schools, not excluding the prefabs. Cafeteria inspection seems to be his favorite duty. His friendliness has been wonderful for the morale of everyone.

Pancho, like the rest of us, has his troubles. The only time he deserts his duties is when the dog-catcher approaches. We wonder how he knows just when to leave.

Activities





Richard Jones won the grand prize in the science fair with his exhibit which was an exceptionally good one. His teacher, Mr. Mueller, is inspecting it.

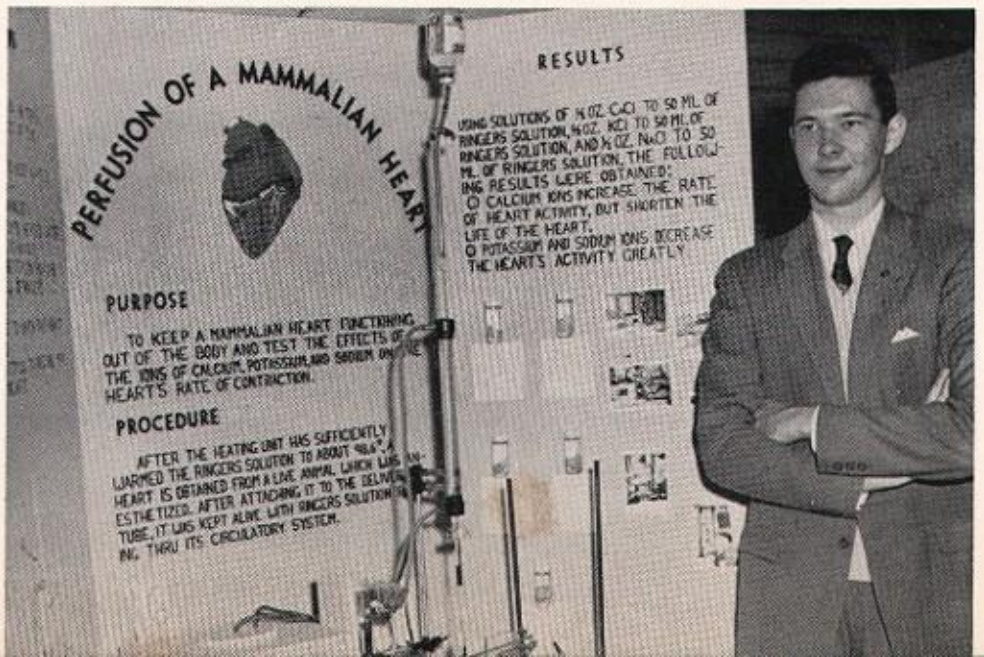
Leonard Pongratz won second place in the biology division with his demonstration of perfusion of a mammalian heart.



Junior and Senior Library Assistants

The junior and senior high libraries could not have succeeded as they have without the assistance of these students. Miss Bethel DeLay is in charge of the senior high library and Miss Dorothy Boatright is in charge of the junior high library. They are assisted in such ways as typing reference cards, replacing books on the shelf, and many other such duties.

Coronation

Activities

Dr. Alexander and Mr. Lewis are engaged in one of their many hallway conferences. We wonder if they have a pass to be in the hall.

Jeff Howe, a messenger of the "Singing Telegram Service," delivered an important wire to Mrs. Kelly on Teacher Appreciation Day.

The Student Council served coffee in the library on Teacher Appreciation Day to stimulate and relax our hard-working faculty.

Edison's rare femme fatale, Rogeretta Mantu, won the grand prize in the beauty contest sponsored by the Student Council. The contestants were chosen to represent the five Tulsa High Schools. From left to right are: Rogeretta Mantu (Rogér Vrooman), Jackie Canapa (Jack Knippa), Gina Lollabrowna (Gene Brown), Funnie Sauerkrauts (Ronnie Fouts), and Gay Slumery (Jay Montgomery). We assure you that this contest was rigged and the judges were adequately compensated.

Junior High Thanksgiving Assembly

These rugged junior high men are reenacting the raising of the flag on Iwo Jima. Have we taken full advantage of the opportunities afforded us by those who fought for us and our country?

"We thank Thee for our families, home, schools, communities, and our country. We thank Thee most of all for our freedom to worship."

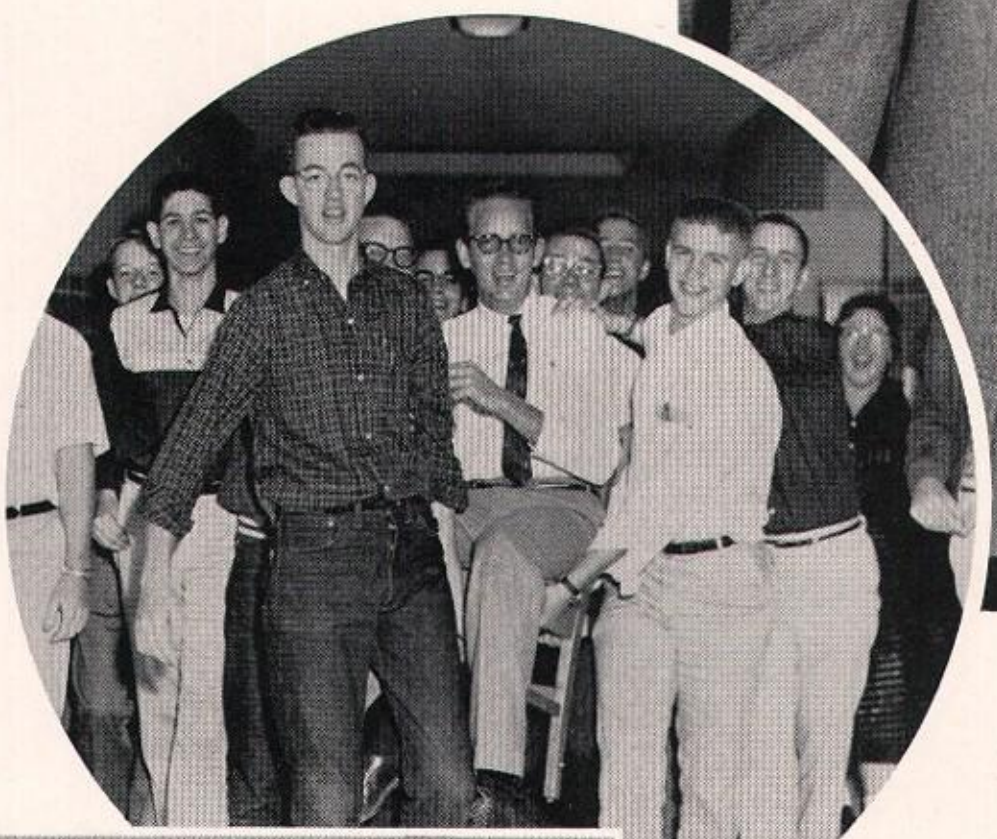
A rebellion, a rugged voyage, a new world, our First Thanksgiving, the beginning of a new life.

A resting period, after the long rehearsals, is in order before the initial performance of the Thanksgiving Assembly.

This impressive program was written by the students in the junior high speech classes.

Activities

Mr. Bland is enjoying his beautiful cake presented by his homeroom on Teachers Appreciation Day.



Students in Mr. Bob Lewis's homeroom were determined that all his energy would be conserved for teaching "Seven Arts," so they carried him to the faculty tea on Teachers Appreciation Day.

Here are some of Edison's more widely known personalities playing that ole game, excuse the expression, POST OFFICE. Seriously, it was a new project for exchanging Christmas cards at school.

Here is Mrs. Spybuck's homeroom preparing gifts for the needy children in keeping with the Christmas theme, "It is better to give than to receive."

Ken White and Booker T. Washington's football representative are shown wishing each other best of luck before a very important game for both teams.

That Central game was a wild one, especially for the Eagle followers.

Even though the Senior Class Play, "Love Rides the Rails" is over, there still rings through the halls that old ballad, "Can Can," which the chorus line worked very hard on and spent many hours after school rehearsing. Choreography by Joe Jeanne Rose.

On our usual exchange with Booker T. Washington, we presented part of our war bonnet with confidence that soon it would be back. We were right! Their hornet's nest is in our trophy case.

Activities

For our second talent assembly we carried out a western theme. As the Dolly sisters, the dressmakers of Hanging Tree, Montana, Connie Barker and Nancy DuVall sang "Fortune in Dreams."

Fats Fisher, alias Bruce Fisher, and his Hungry Five plus One—brought a touch of Dixieland jazz to our western town.

The most successful act of the show was La Ballet de Kelly. This was a group of talented (?) dancers from the homeroom of Mrs. Fern Kelly. They are: Henrietta Howe, Tamburina Tucker, Sarah Sullivan, Roberta Robertson, Tinky Winky Webb, Kathellen Crawford, Waldermera Watkins, Susanna Smith, Fratinna Fingerlin, Mathilda Machules.

We Edisonites disagree with those who said they set ballet back 100 years.

The friendly (?) rivalry between the faculty and students comes to a head every year during Edison Week. This takes place at the annual Faculty-Key Club basketball game. This year the game was on February 10. We wonder if Mr. Green has ever taken any acrobatic lessons.

These two mimes, Jeff Howe and Richard Kirby, have provided many happy times in assemblies with their far-flung pantomimes. Here they try their talents to the record, "The Great Pretender."

In each and every one of our talent assemblies we see an amazing amount of different talents. For our classical vein Eddie Gates and his piano has offered us much entertainment.

The Esquires, a favorite singing group at Edison, have provided many tuneful moments at different school functions.

These sophomores entered the KOME talent roundup, won first place, and got a record contract with Roulette Records.

This year, as last year, the faculty won the game. The score being 34-32. The Key Clubbers and faculty turned out in colorful array of pajamas, shorts, and gym clothes.
